CARDS OF THANKS

The cards and calls and many kindnesses shown to me at the time of and since the accident are indeed appreciated. Alex. Ross

I wish to thank all the kind friends and neighbors who sent me cards, flowers and treats during my recent illness and to the Sisters and nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, and Dr. Kenney, Mrs. Desmond O'Rourke

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Longstreet and family extend their sincere thanks to their friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral tributes and kindness shown them during their recent sad bereavement in the death of their little son and brother George.

One and that —The strawberry crop is about over and it has been a fair yield.

—Vegetables from the home gardens are assisting these days in the family budget.

—The campaign for Acton-Community Swimming Pool is now on. Meet your canvasser with a smile and do your best to assure a new pool for the sweltering days of next summer.

—The banks on the highway cuts made last year between Milton and Acton are being sodded. Surveyors have been at work laying out the section from Speyside to Acton but no start has been made in construction.

CLAYTON GEO. LONGSTREET

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. James Longstreet and family in their recent bereavement in the death of their little son, George, who passed away Tuesday, June 29th in his 5th year. The little fellow had been first taken ill just about a year ago and spent some time in the Sick Children's Hospital where he underwent a serious operation.

He is survived by his parents, four brothers and seven sisters. The funeral took place from the family residence, Lot 5, Cor. 8, Erin Township on Friday afternoon when Rev. O. R. Flindall conducted the service.

Beautiful floral tributes were from the parents; brothers and sisters; Mason Knit, Acton; Wool Combing, Acton; Staff of Long's Confectionery, Georgetown; Meyriam Family; Spears Family; Wright Family; Mrs. D. J. Sinclair and Family; Marshall and Frank Smith Families; Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hillock; Mrs. Longstreet's Parents and Family; Mr. and Mrs. Val Arbustater and Family.

Flower bearers were Clarence Allan, Clarence Arbustater, Billy and Douglas Law, Joan Graham and Yvonne McEnery.

Pall bearers were Gray Merriman, Gordon Arbustater, Fred Atlan and Clarence Hilton.

Interment was at Blair's Cemetery, Belfountain, in the family plot.

GREENE-TURNER WEDDING SATURDAY AT ST. ALBAN'S, ACTON

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Alban's Church, Acton on Saturday, July 3rd at 2:30 pm. when Beiza Althea, the second oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Turner, R.R. 2, Acton, became the bride of Reginald Bertram Greene of Montreal. The bride was given away by her father, and Mr. Arthur Gordon of Montreal was best man. Rev. W. G. Luxton, B.A., officiated.

The bride looked beautiful in a gown of ivory satin, cut in princess style, with sweetheart neckline, long train and matching veil. She wore an amethyst pendant, an heirloom of her grandmother and carried a bouquet of deep red roses. She was attended by her three sisters, Lillian as Maid of Honor, wearing mauve, Edith and Barbara in pink and blue, with large picture hats to match. Each carried a posy of anthurium and fern.

The bride's mother looked charming in black and pale blue with accessories to match and a corsage of pink roses while the groom's mother chose green gown with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Norman Turner and Ernest Loveday ushered. During the signing of the register, Lillian Turner sang, "O Promise Me". After the ceremony, the guests, nearly seventy in number returned to a reception on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, where luncheon was served with the assistance of friends of the family.

Later the young couple left for Toronto en route to Muskoka district where they will spend their honeymoon and upon returning will live in Montreal. The out-of-town guests were from Montreal, Hamilton, North Bay and Carleton Place.

THE BRIGNALL-WHITE WEDDING SATURDAY IN TORONTO CHURCH

In Kingsway-Lambton United Church, Toronto, with Rev. Dr. W. C. Lockhart officiating, the marriage took place on Saturday of Alleen Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest White, to Mr. Douglas Lawrence Brignall Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brignall of Toronto and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Reed, Acton; Mrs. William Beattie was at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a period gown of ivory parchment taffeta, with fitted bodice and front panel outline with antique ivory cord, and gathered skirt ending in a circular train. Her flowers were a cascade of gardenias and white carnations. Miss Helen Dunlop, maid of honor, and Miss Glenna Fletcher, bridesmaid, wore gowns alike in sunset pink tulle taffeta, and carried bouquets of pink roses and lavender iris. Mr. Robert Brignall was groomsmen, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Booth and Mr. Ernest Near.

The reception was at the Old Mill. Following a trip to Montreal and Quebec, Mr. and Mrs. Brignall will reside in Hamilton.

THE JOHNSTON-NORRIS WEDDING AT CHURCH IN GEORGETOWN

Decorated with peonies, snapdragons and fern. St. George's Church of England, Georgetown, was a lovely setting for the wedding on Saturday June 26th of Marion Louise Norris, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Norris, and Frederick Earle Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Acton. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white satin with a long train trimmed with seed pearls. Her headpiece was of plaited velvet with a long embroidered veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with long white satin streamers.

The bridal attendants were Miss Georgina Mitchell, maid of honor; Miss Helen Johnson sister of the groom, junior bridesmaid; Miss Thelma Lappin and Helen Sheibourne. The maid of honor wore floral pink taffeta with accessories to match. The bridesmaids were gowned in pink and blue taffeta with matching headpiece and gloves. All the attendants carried baskets of roses and orange blossoms. The flower girl was Barbara Allen, cousin of the bride, wearing pink nylon sweater and carrying a basket of sweet peas. The bride's parents garden. The best man was Burness Van Fleet of Acton and ushers were Gordon Inglis, Gilbert Jordan and George Johnson, brother of the groom. Mrs. W. F. Bradley played the wedding music. The groom's gift to the bride was a strand string of pink pearls; to the best man a gold tie pin and clasp set and for bridesmaids a china cup and saucer. The ushers received wallets.

At a reception at Limehouse Memorial Hall for 60 guests the bride's mother received in an aqua mesh gown with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing yellow figured crepe dress with white accessories and corsage of white roses. The bride's table was decorated with pink streamers, pink roses, and sweet peas and a three tier wedding cake.

The happy couple returned to the bride's home in Georgetown where she changed to a suit of soft blue wool with grey accessories, a corsage of red roses. They are honeymooning at Floral Park, Lake Couchiching and upon return will reside in Georgetown.

KNOX LADIES AID MEET AT HOME OF MRS. W. J. HALL

The June meeting of Knox Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hall, Brock Ave., the president Mrs. F. McCutcheon presiding. Mrs. S. Cordiner was in charge of the devotional part. Following the reports and general business the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

An enjoyable program had been prepared with the following numbers: a reading on the value of prayer was given by Mrs. A. J. Buchanan; Miss Bella Rozell favoured with a solo "Back of the Clouds the Sun is always Shining"; a reading by Mrs. Grindell, "The Ladies Aid." Mrs. Ritchie conducted a contest on kitchen necessities and Mrs. McCutcheon one on house plants and perennials. These were won by Mrs. Geo. Somerville and Miss M. Somerville.

A delightful social time was enjoyed when Mrs. Geo. Ritchie was assisted by her group of Mrs. A. A. Smith, Mrs. Grindell, Mrs. Wm. McLeod and Mrs. S. Cordiner in serving refreshments. Mrs. Carl Hansen offered her home for the next meeting and Mrs. R. L. Davidson expressed the appreciation to the hostess and all who had assisted.
