CAMPBELLVILLE

The Misses Black entertained the Blair Y. W. on Thursday evening with the President Mrs. J. Robertson presiding. The President led in the reading of the Scripture lesson. Mrs. Wm. Malton read a very interesting article on the work of the late Dr. McQueen of Edmonton. Miss Black read part of Ruth Buchanan's book "My Mother". This was also very interesting. The offering was dedicated by singing the Doxology. The roll call was answered by using the word Harvest as the text word.

Several from here attended the Harris Re-union held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harris, Kibridge.

Mrs. Joseph Mitchell spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell of Kibridge.

A presentation was held at Christie Hall on Friday evening in honour of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder of Hamilton. The bride is formerly Miss Evelyn Stokes. Mrs. Edward Parsons read the address and Mrs. James Robertson presented to the happy couple on behalf of the community a dinner set of dishes. Progressive euchre and a beautiful lunch was the order of the evening.

Miss Gladys Harrod of Milton visited with Mrs. A. T. Moore last week.

One of Campbellville's most respected residents, Mrs. Archie McMillan, formerly Catharine Campbell of Moffat passed away at her home after a lengthy illness. Mrs. John MacNeil took charge of the private service at the house and at the graveside at St. David's cemetery. Pallbearers were: Grant Campbell, Moffat; William Moore, Kerwin; Rosa Campbell, Guelph; Chester Darragh, Toronto; John McMillan, Kibridge; Wilfred Milne, Toronto.
