Various Items Concerning Activities in Communities Nearby Where Many of Our Readers are Interested

BALLINAFAD

A show was held in the hall for Mr and Mrs Alex McKeegan (nee Norma McKeegan), Rev. Mr. Flindall acting as chairman for a short program consisting of songs by Miss Doris Hastings and Miss Eva Lambert; piano solo by Mrs. Annie McKeegan; readings by Mrs. Jennie McKeegan and Mrs. Stewart; Mr. Flindall asked the bride and groom to come forward and Mrs. Alex McKeegan read a very fine address, after which they were presented with many useful and beautiful gifts. They both replied very fittingly and everybody joined in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows". Lunch was served and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing to music by Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKeegan and Mr. and Mrs. Gear Sinclair.

The Mission Band took charge of a service on Sunday night by having their regular meeting and a short program and lantern slides by Mr. Flindall. Everyone enjoyed seeing the children carrying out their part of the work to help in bringing more children to know there is a true and loving God who will care for them.

Y's Mens Club Big Local Show For Acton Pool

Plan Event for Next Thursday and Friday With All Local Talent

Rehearsals are under way for "Fun for You", local talent show being sponsored by the Y's Men's Club, Thursday and Friday of next week, October 14-15 at the Town Hall. The proceeds from this production go to the Acton Swimming Pool.

The play is under the direction of Miss H. Engstrom of Red Wing, Minn., who gained experience in the Honolulu Community Theatre while teaching in the Hawaiian Islands.

The show, an impersonation of celebrities supposedly putting on a continuous broadcast, is built for

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hindley, Oshering, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hindley.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hindley, Oshering, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hindley.

Miss B. Engstrom, who is directing the Y's Mens local show, "Fun for You", to be presented next week in the Acton Town Hall for two nights. The show will feature many well-known Acton men in the continuous broadcast and will be hilariously funny.

laughs and variety with the brand new idea of amateur productions as the audience attending has an opportunity to participate as in big net work shows. Bob Parker as master of ceremonies, introduces Duke Hill as Dr. T.Q., who awards silver dollars to those in the audience answering his questions correctly. Hilarity is added by an impersonation of breakfast in Hollywood with Charlie Wilson as Tom Brennan, who not only awards nyctors for the crinest hats worn to the program but introduces a chorus lineup of glamour girls with Charlie Leatherland as Marlene Dietrich, Ben Rachlin as Mae West, Earl Cooper as Gravel Gortle, etc. The program is interrupted realistically by Fred Helson as the Singing Commercial. Formax Lawrence as Joe Kelly quizzes the Quiz Kids and introduces the Barn Dance scene, a comedy highspot with Joe Whitman as Uncle Ezra, Mrs. Les Duby as Minnie Pearl, the glamour gal from Grinders Switch and Ernie Packer as caller for square dancers accompanied by old time music.

Complete names of those in the cast will be released shortly, but the program promises to be a worthy addition to the entertainment season.
