ROCKWOOD

The executive committee of the Rockwood and Everton Branch Bible Society met in the basement of the Presbyterian Church last week. Mr. Chas. H. Harris, president, opened the meeting with devotional exercises. Mr. George H. Pearen, sec-treas read reports of previous meetings. Routine business was carried out, and some thirty-two collectors appointed for the district. Considering the few who were present, a good meeting was held. At the conclusion, Rev. John Oliver closed the meeting with a prayer.

The W. M. S. of the Presbyterian Church held their Thank-offering meeting in the Church last week. Invitations were extended to the W.M.S. of the United Church and St. John's Church to attend. The guest speaker for the occasion was Rev. Fred Williamson. Following the meeting all adjourned to the basement where refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Friday evening, the Rockwood Musical Society Band put on a program, with Mr. Frank Day as the chairman. During the program, special numbers were enjoyed with piano selections by Masters Wayne and Bruce Hosking, and later by both boys in a duet. A selection by Band Master S. East with four band members provided splendid music which was much appreciated. Addresses were given by Rev. John Oliver, Dr. K. B. Waller and Mr. Walter Hunt. A trio by three girls was also on the program. A good sum was realized through tickets sold and paid admissions at the door.

On Sunday morning, a representative of the Gideon organization was present at the Presbyterian Church and addressed the congregation in connection with their work in distribution of Bibles in various places.
