ROCKWOOD

Following an illness of some duration, Mrs. Robert Williamson passed away in Guelph General Hospital last Wednesday. The funeral took place Saturday with a service in the United Church which was largely attended. Her pastor, Rev. John Oliver, conducting the service was assisted by Rev. W. J. Taylor of Dorchester a former pastor who brought a comforting message to the bereaved members of the family.

The pallbearers were Messrs. J. Marshall, Sandy Hewitson, Frank Day, John Henderson, Milton and Gordon Swanston. Honorary pallbearers were Messrs. George H. Penren and John Taylor, who also carried wreaths along with flower bearers, who were grandchildren of the deceased. The sympathy of the community is extended to the four daughters and one son who mourn the loss of a mother. Interment took place in Rockwood beside her late husband. Both Rev. J. Oliver and Rev. W. J. Taylor officiated at the graveside.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning which was well attended, with Rev. Fred Williamson officiating. Preparatory services were held Friday evening with a baptismal ceremony which was performed for one new member who was received into the fellowship of the Church.

Sunday evening, moving pictures were shown at the United Church when a film, entitled "Christianity Goes to the Press", dealing with the spread of the Bible in China was presented. It was interesting to see the work of making up copies of the Bible in Chinese characters, and their way of printing. Prior to showing the film, Rev. J. Oliver conducted a brief devotional service with congregational singing.
