Knox Church Marked its 103rd Anniversary

Moderator of Presbytery Was Special Preacher—Annual Turkey Dinner Monday

Large congregations attended hast Sunday when Knox Preshyterian Church marked its 103rd Anniversary. Splendid fall weather favored the event. The special speaker for the day was Rev. Findlay Gordon Stewart of St. Andrew's Church, Kitchener and chairman of the Guelph Presbylery. He gave two forceful discourses which were much appreciated. At the morning service Mr. Stewart chose his text from the first verse of Revelations 21; "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth". For the evening service the text was taken from the fifteenth Previously acknowledged ..: $65.00 chapter of John. It was a continu- Mrs. Burns. Toronto (nee Miss

Damages Awarded for Attack of Dog-Three Divorce

A settlement between both the plaintiff and defendant was arranged before conclusion of the only jury civil damage action to be heard at the Fall Assizes in Milton this week at the Court House before Mr. Justice J. Genest.

The settlement was reached after the jury heard evidence on Monday and Tuesday, following the audden illness of a juryman. Half of the defendant's witness had been heard at this time.

Heat of the courtroom along with interest he was taking in the case, V was blamed for a fainting spell of Juryman Norman Brown. Following the announcement of a short was revived by Dr. George E. Syer who was already in the witness box testifying.

The settlement arranged was for the defendant to pay the sum of $750 to the plaintiff for damages One of the chief hopes behind arising from an attack of the de-
