Acton Leads in Pre-Season Hockey With Two Wins

Defeated Georgetown in the Opening Game by 6-2 and Won on Tuesday from Weston 4-3. Plenty of players on Acton line-up with promise of good Hockey Season.

TASTE OF VICTORY SWEET
Acton's brush and unparagonable Tanners—1949 edition—made an auspicious debut last Thursday when they smashed out an impressive 6-2 verdict over Georgetown Raiders in the first game of six scheduled. Sinking a goal early in the first period, the Tanners completely baffled Raiders with their speed and checking to easily roll to victory as dejected Georgetown fans howled their dismay.

The Tanners didn't belong in the same class as Georgetown on Thursday. With "Dooney" Evans (Thursday) in the net, they stormed in the Raider cage repeatedly and only were shackled by Lady Luck from adding a dozen more. On the other hand, Raiders had difficulty beating a path to Evans' citadel for a close-in shot.

Both Georgetown markers were scored while the Tanners did penance and as a result of screened shots. On other occasions with only three men to five Acton frustrated Raider gangling attacks with instant back-checking and an unbeatable Evans.

Studded with penalties, the game was bitterly fought. No quarter was asked none given. Of seventeen penalties, eleven were allotted to Acton. Fired with desire to win they handed out bruising checks that slowed Raiders down from their first sortie.

Fistfuls broke out at one point when Barney Hilson, Tanners hard hitting blue-liner, tangled with Art Melanson, of the Raiders. Brox, Ted Hilson hastened to Barney's defense and Melanson's mates conceded defeat, refraining from provoking Ted to similar tactics. This incident was typical of play through the length of the fixture.

Coxe Good on Attack
Diminutive "Mike" Coxe was a triple threat for the Tanners. The flashy pivot, Milton's gift to Acton, first beat Lever to put Acton ahead in the early minutes. With Goy in the don-jon, Georgetown notched the equalizer minutes later. Again the fiery pivot waltzed in on Lever, flipped a pass to Ted Hilson, who put Acton in the lead for the second time. Then Leno Marzo broke out on the very next play to make it 3-1. Raiders added their second and last with Hilson and Goy both in penance.

An assortment of penalties meted out in wifed fashion started the second frame off on the rough side. With teams at full strength Ben Bayliss blazed an ankle high shot that put Acton well ahead. Dominating play, Tanners clicked again at the later end of the period when O'Donoghue went in alone on the left dasher and slid the biscuit into the cords as Lever fanned easily. The shot never left the ice.

Georgetown awoke, converged on Evans as the final stanza got underway. Evans playing brilliant goal stymied them until Sprout grabbed a loose puck, took a 50 foot shot Lever thought he snagged, but it deflected off his glove for goal No. 6. From here in it was Tanners all the way but they showed poor polish around the net.

In the second game of the twin bill Weston took Oakville 5-3.

Bank Robber Committed for Trial Last Week

Other Cases Heard in Magistrate's Court at Milton

Charged with the $105,000 armed robbery of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Campbellville on July 8, 1947 Leo G. Adams, 25, alias Brunnel and Sloan, was committed for trial when he appeared before Magistrate Kenneth M. Langdon, in Magistrate's Court in Milton last week.

Adams who was brought from Vancouver to face the charge has been in custody for the last eight weeks awaiting preliminary hearing. He elected to be tried before Judge and jury but did not plead to the charge.

Describing events of the robbery Frank E. Quinlan, manager of the branch for 10 years, said three men came into the bank about 2:10 in the afternoon. "Two of them were armed and at the point of a gun the cash was removed from the teller's cage and I was ordered to open the safe. Additional cash and three tin boxes of securities were taken, witness testified.

"One of the men confronted me, motioning to the safe. He pointed at the combination with his gun, as much as to say 'open it up'. I was ordered to get behind the door and face the wall."

"Cash was shoved into a cloth container while other cash was stuffed into one of the men's pockets. They took the teller and I outside and told us to keep walking as a car drove up. They jumped in as the car sped south through Campbellville."

AC-TEEN TOPICS

We might head our number one topic of the week "Something new has not been added" or "We're not so dumb." Now let's get down to the brutally cold facts. In the present campaign speech, we seem to recall something like this. "There will be no drinks allowed and we are going to have more special events." So far, there have been no membership cards issued, although the designs were submitted to the president at least a month ago, more drinks have appeared and one special event in the form of a Sadie Hawkins Dance which certainly should have proven in the way teen-agers accepted it that that was what they wanted.

The Penguin Club received its popularity for four outstanding reasons: 1. It was run by teen-agers. 2. It was a regular occurrence. 3. It was full of surprises and novelties. 4. And it was for teen-agers alone. Let us review briefly the sole opinions of your truly on each of these points. We realize we are going out on a limb we've hung alone before. 1. It is not run by teen-agers. It is not run by anyone. In short, it is costing along its reputation built up by a lot of hard work. 2. It is still a regular occurrence although possibly it soon won't be. 3. Novelties and surprises have vanished. It has evolved into a public dance attracting everyone, teen-age or not. 4. As for teen-agers being its sole supporters, that seems a little untrue of the incoming attenders.

It is rather unfair to make criticisms without supplying suggestions or possible remedies and improvements so here are ours: 1. Organize the Council into responsible groups. 2. Issue memberships to Ac-teen agers and admit non-members only when accompanied by a member. 3. Work at the job to which you were appointed. 4. Revise the novel fun for which the club has been noted.

As we said Mr. President, we have been brutally frank, you have an excellent executive and with a little organization and work will quite easily maintain the reputation of an excellent teen-ager organization.

STOP THE PRESS NEWS
There will be no Penguin Club this Friday. Watch for further developments.
