Oh, and that

—Merry Christmas again!
—Just one more shopping day left.
—Be sure to send in lists of your Christmas visitors or note of visits spent elsewhere for the Personal Column.

—If your Christmas mail or express is a little late, remember both of these facilities have been overtaxed these past few weeks.

—Children's Christmas Party tomorrow at two o'clock at the Romy Theatre in Acton. The treats are on the theatre and Acton business men.

—We gratefully acknowledge receipt of our Santa Claus request. The deepest holes in the roadway between Acton and Milton have been filled. Now our faith in Santa is resumed.

—The Saturday afternoon train from Toronto that arrives in Acton at 2.30 is cancelled for this week and next. It will, however, operate on Friday, December 24 and Friday, December 31st, arriving here at the same time.

—Winners of the various prizes at the L.O. draw at Crewson's Corners last Friday were: 1st, turkey, J. Currie, Campbellville; 2nd, goose, J. Armstrong, Milton; 3rd, chicken, Mae Fountain, Acton; 4th, turkey, Joan Matthews, Acton; 5th, goose, Albert Harris, Acton; 6th, chicken, J. Van Fleet, Acton.

MILTON

Unable alone to pump and carry sufficient water, Herbert Roy, 60, had to wait for a small blaze under the counter of his general store here mushroom into a roaring fire that destroyed the building on No. 5 highway. Volunteer firemen from three brigades had to stand and watch the flames because there was no water. Loss is estimated at over $30,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Loughheed celebrated their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary Tuesday December 7 at their home on Charles St. They were at home to friends and neighbors in the afternoon and evening. The happy couple received telegrams and congratulations, many beautiful cards and gifts of flowers and other remembrances. Canadian Champion.

BANK CHARGES UP

Due to sharply rising costs, chartered banks are increasing some of their service charges. The Financial Post learns. Probability that this would be done was indicated some weeks ago. Some increases have already gone into effect with some banks. It is understood, while others are pending.

Obituary

MRS. CHARLES HILL
Monroe, Mich.

From the Monroe (Mich.) Evening-News we gathered the following item.

"Mrs. Charles (Emma) Hill, 91, died Tuesday morning, December 14th, in her home at 211 Lincoln Ave. She had been in poor health for a year and seriously ill for six weeks.

The funeral services were held on Thursday with Rev. Dr. Harvey T. Howard of St. Paul's Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery.

Born Dec. 4, 1857, at Acton, Ont., she was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson McGarvie. She married Charles W. Hill Oct. 26, 1881, at Georgetown Ont., and they came to Monroe from Acton in 1885. She was a member of St. Paul's Church.

Surviving are her husband, one daughter, Mrs. Reed M. Dunbar of Monroe, and three grandchildren. One son, William Nelson Hill, preceded her in death."
