ROCKWOOD

Monday evening, the Town Hall was well filled with parents and friends of school children from Township schools when pupils started in interesting plays from four schools, Rockwood, S.S. 2, 3, 4, and 7. The school plays are taking place of speaking contests Wednesday evening. Other schools will again compete to be followed by a final competition after Easter.

Mr. Dave Armstrong, principal of Rockwood School gave out announcements for the evening. Dr. Branigan of Guelph was present and gave comments on the events. Those who took part Monday evening carried out their parts to perfection.

The Kidd Baker Show who have been putting on concerts during the winter, will conclude this Tuesday evening for the season.

The many friends of Mrs. Roy Young who sustained serious injury due to a fall some time ago, and spent three weeks in hospital in Guelph, are pleased to see her able to be around as usual again. Mrs. C. O. Plank is also able to be out and around.

Schools close this week for the Easter holidays.

NASSAGAWEYA

S. S. No. 7
Last Monday evening No. 7 School Farm Radio Forum held their annual oyster supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Locker, where 31 met at 7:00 o'clock to enjoy first apple juice, then oyster soup, next salads, ham, jellies and pickles. To finish we nibbled on cookies and wafers until a slab of pie and about 8 oz. of ice cream was served. After dishes were disposed of and tables made ready progressive eucure was played. Highest score went to Mrs. W. Kennedy. Highest lady was Mrs. C. E. Davenport and second Mrs. William Tuck. Highest gent was Mr. Gerald Henderson and second Mr. David Henderson. A motion of thanks on behalf of all was sponsored by Mr. W. Kennedy to Mr. and Mrs. Locker for the use of their home and hospitality.

We still have a sick list. Miss Ellen Frank, Master Ralph Price and Master Jimmie Frank, little Doris Robinson have all had the flu.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Rev. J. C. MacNeil of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church and hope he is soon well again.
