HARRY L. HARRISON

Fergus

Funeral service was last Thursday afternoon from the Melville Church Chapel, Fergus, for Harry L. Harrison, who died Tuesday at his residence on St. Patrick Street in his 78th year. Service was conducted by the Rev. G. Everitt Ashton, minister of Melville United Church and interment took place in Belsyde Cemetery. Born at Punnets Town, England, in 1871, Mr. Harrison came to Canada as a lad of 16. He operated a harness making business at Listowel and Harriston for a while and then moved to Southampton, Ont.

He went to Fergus for the first ime in 1905 and set up a shoe business. In 1923 he moved to Acton and five years later returned to Fergus where he had lived for the past 20 years.

He was twice married. He marned his second wife, the former Jessie Cumming, at Stoney Creek Surviving are his widow and two children by his first marriage; a, son, Jack, who is manager of the Imperial - Bank, Kingston, and a daughter. Mrs. Clayton Smith (Frances) of Toronto. A son Laucence, was killed while overseas with the Canadian army in 1916.

An avid sportsman, Mr. Harrison was widely known for his interest in lawn bowling. He competed in many tournaments throughout the province. He was a member of Melville United Church.

CHOCOLATE DIPS, IN PRICE

Candy lovers may be paying less to fill that sweet tooth by spring. suggests The Financial Post. Recent price declines in cocos futures (about 30 per cent since October) have candy makers wearing broad grins these days. They're break, not just a yo-yo bounce like last winter's price dip.

Authorities don't look for much change in the cost of Easter chocolate bunny, but shortly after, noseing at Beaverton and all brought diving cocoa prices may begin to show up at the retail level.
