Mac Wingfield and Fraser McNabb

New Presidents of Norval Juniors

The annual meeting of the Norval Juniors was held at the home of Jessie, Mac, and Gordon Wingfield, on Tuesday evening of last week. This Junior Farmers organization has now been in existence for some fifteen years and has built up an enviable reputation over the years. Harold Baker, who has just completed his third year and who is acting as a temporary assistant to the Agricultural Representatives for the County of Halton and Peel, was the guest speaker. He took as his subject "Personality" and made an excellent impression on the young people in attendance.

The election of officers for the coming twelve months resulted as follows:

Official Opening Halton Community Park

The official opening of the Halton Community Park at Lawville for 1948 is scheduled for Monday, June 6th. This will mark the turning on of the flood lights which are now in the course of installation. At a meeting of the County Executive of the Halton Federation of Agriculture held in Milton last week plans were laid to make this a banner event. The program will include a number of baseball games between outstanding teams both in the afternoon and evening of June 6th, and also a wide variety of other program for the evening. Further announcement will be made later when plans are completed by the various committees in charge.

Twilight Barn Meeting

Geo. M. Clemons, Secretary Manager of the Holstein Friesian Association of Canada, is to be the guest speaker at the Twilight Barn Meeting being held on the farm of H. W. Hays, Trafalgar, on Friday evening, May 27th. Mr. Clemons will speak on his recent trip to Italy in the interests of the Holstein Breeders of Canada. The program will also include judging competitions, etc. A similar meeting was held at the Hays Sales Arena a year ago with well over 200 in attendance. The 1948 event was such an outstanding success that the breeders voted unanimously for a similar type meeting in 1949. Geo. Drennan Holstein Fieldman for this section of Ontario, will also be in attendance.

Halton Juniors to Hold Annual Judging Competitions and Achievement Day

Saturday June 4th is the big day for Halton Junior Farmers and Junior Homemakers. According to Stanley Jay, Secretary of Halton Junior Farmers, this will be the day for their annual Livestock Judging Competitions and the Achievement Day for the Junior Homemakers. The young men will visit some of the leading livestock farms in Halton, where they will judge ten classes of livestock. Under the leadership of Miss Lucille Barber, County Home Economist, the young ladies will have on display in the Milton Town Hall, some of the articles made in connection with the two projects carried on during the past year. Excellent prize lists have been prepared—the outstanding Junior Homemaker will receive a championship trip to the 4H Club Congress at Chicago next December—while the two top contestants in the boys section will be awarded a bus trip through the neighboring states to the south, and to Quebec and Eastern Ontario. Halton District Women's Institutes donate the championship trip to the Junior Homemakers.

The Sunday School*LESSON

SUNDAY, MAY 26th, 1948

ASSURANCE AND POWER THROUGH PRAYER

Golden Text: "Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation, the spirit indeed is willing but the flesh is weak" Mk. 14: 32-34.

Lesson Text: Mk. 14: 32-42.

Exposition: "My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death" Mk. 14: 34.

The three whom Jesus took with him v. 34 are the same three whom He took to the Mount of Transfiguration. If we take us with Him to the Mount of Transfiguration, we may expect Him to take us with Him to Gethsemane. Jesus longed for human sympathy. He did not get it. He trod the winepress alone, even the inmost circle slept while the Saviour agonized and prayed. "There is something useful to contemplate in the absolute loneliness of the Saviour. He was in a state of great mental and spiritual anguish. It was not mere dread of the physical agony that lay a little way ahead but His own heart-breaking and longing for sympathy on the one hand and for the lack of self-sacrifice on the other" v. 35.

Is He not saying the same to us today? The rebuke was intended especially for Peter who had boasted that he would die with Jesus and now could not even "watch one hour"? Jesus also spoke to them about their own need of prayer v. 36 but they heeded it not and were soon fast asleep again.

He was dying of agony then and there v. 34) and God strengthened Him (Luke 22: 40) and He went to the cross and accomplished His work.

While Jesus prayed the disciples slept. They had not fallen asleep at once; they had heard something of His agony and prayer but they had been more occupied with their own sorrow than with His and were soon overcome by it (Luke 22: 40).

We can understand them by studying ourselves. We too are more occupied with our own griefs than with the griefs of Jesus over a perishing world and we too sleep when we ought to be watching and praying. The sleep of the disciples was natural but it was not excusable; it was a fulfillment of the prophecy "I looked for comforters but I found none" (Eph. 6: 20).

Jesus asked them a gentle reproachful question that revealed His own heart-breaking and longing for sympathy on the one hand and for the lack of self-sacrifice on the other v. 37.
