PRESNTATION MADE AT BAPTIST Y.P.U. FOR BRIDE OF MONTH

On Friday night the congregation of the Baptist Church met with the Y.P.U. to honor Bevete Reed on her forthcoming marriage to Doug Peck, of Georgetown. Clarence Reed, president of the Y.P.U. was in charge of the devotions and business period. Charles Landsborough and Doug Peck played a cornet duet "Whispering Hope."

Then Helen West called the couple to the front and read an address to them. Ronnie Cripps presented them with a large floral design mirror. Both Doug and Bevete made fitting replies.

Rev. C. R. Gower took over at this point and spoke briefly. Words of best-wishes were added by Mr. C. O. Plank.

The group adjourned to the basement of the church where a games period was conducted and lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reed and family of Hamilton were present for the occasion. Their daughter Nancy had with her a letter from the lady-in-waiting to Queen Mary. Nancy was ten on the same day that Queen Mary was eighty-two and in reply to a letter sent to the Queen Mother by Nancy, the lady-in-waiting wished Nancy a happy birthday and that her birthday cake might have candles on it.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Gower.
