ROCKWOOD

Hamilton Conference of the United Church at McMaster University drew a large attendance from the Rockwood charge. Rev. C. J. Jolliffe, Rev. John W. Oliver, Messrs Frank Day and Roy I. Lewis were the delegates. Others in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore, Mrs. J. W. Oliver, Mrs. Jesse Gordier, Mrs. M. Clarke, Mrs. A. K. Thomas, Mrs. Frank Day, Mrs. C. J. Jolliffe, Messrs Russell Osborne, Fred Oakes, Francis Moser and Ed Barber. Former residents seen at the banquet in the Drill Hall were Rev. and Mrs. John Ward, Rev. John Diltz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day and Mrs. M. Green.

The first of the political meetings in connection with the forthcoming elections were held Friday evening in the Town Hall on behalf of the Liberal candidate, Henry Hoaking. Mr. Dave D. Gray opened the meeting and introduced Mr. Ross McEwing who was followed by Mr. Clark of Guelph and finally by H. Hoaking.

Anniversary services were well attended at the United Church on Sunday. The guest preacher for the day was a former minister of Rockwood before Church Union took place—Rev. John Diltz of Calvary United Church, Hamilton. His subject for the morning was "Let the Church Wake Up." Special music was provided by the choir. For the evening, Mr. Diltz's subject was "Did Someone Knock?" and music was contributed by the Stone Church choir whose selections under the direction of Mr. E. N. Comfort, with Mr. Linton Howsell as organist were appreciated by the congregation. They were a duet by Misses Nancy Loree and Helen Duffield, a quartette selection by Messrs. Wm. Jackson, Carmen Osborne, Clarence Comfort and Earle Osborne.

Rev. John W. Oliver was in Hamilton ministering to the congregation of Rev. J. Diltz. Monday evening a congregational supper was served followed by a program with Rev. John W. Oliver as chairman who led in a brief sing song, selection by Guelph Quartette, brief address by Mr. George Bayne, Mr. Chas. H. Harris and Mrs. J. A. Little. An interesting feature was a sound film dealing with the Fish Industry on the Pacific coast in the vicinity of the Fraser River. A comic film was of interest to young folks concerning bees and another on cowboy songs. Just before the conclusion of the program, Mr. Geo. H. Pearen led in prayer, followed by singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and benediction by Rev. J. W. Oliver.

Following an illness of some duration due to heart condition, Mr. Samuel N. Hutchinson passed away last Friday in Guelph General Hospital. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon with a private service at the Victor H. Humley Funeral Home, Acton, with Rev. Fred Williamson conducting the service, followed by services in the Presbyterian Church, Rockwood, which was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Arch. McNabb, A. J. Elliot, Alex. Kingsbury, J. Green, T. H. Matthey and J. Hunter. Numerous floral wreaths showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held, were carried by nephews. Interment took place in McKee's Cemetery, Orangeville Road. The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Hutchinson and members of the family, as well as two brothers, Thomas and Stanley in their bereavement.

The June meeting of the Rockwood W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. H. Dyer with a good attendance. Mrs. C. J. Jolliffe opened the meeting with prayer followed by the Lord's Prayer. The Bible Lesson was very ably explained by Mrs. Wilcox. The members were pleased to have Mrs. Wilcox meet with them again. Mrs. A. K. Thomas brought a card for the members to sign and send to Mrs. S. Petty who is in the Hospital in Guelph, as the result of a serious accident which befell her recently in her home. She broke her hip in a fall. Mrs. Geo. W. Peal read an interesting article on "How to Read the Bible and Love it." Mrs. Copeland read "The Canadian Open Golf Championship for the Seagram Gold Cup," and $10,000 in prize money. Meeting closed with "Blest Be The Tie" and prayer by Mrs. Peal. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. Victor Taylor, of Campbellford, Ont., visited with his cousins recently Mrs. Wm. S. Gordon, Mrs. Chas. H. Harris, Mr. Wm. Chapman, Mr. John Taylor and Mrs. Copeland. Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor had as recent guests their niece, Mrs. Jack Taylor and two children of Edmonton, Alberta.
