

ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF PROGRESS MARKED AT NASSAGAWEYA CENTENNIAL

Above are some of the pictures caught by the staff camera at the recent celebration of the Nassagaweya Centennial at Brookville. 1. The winning set in the Square Dance contest from Puslinch. Mr and Mrs Peter C McLean, Mr and Mrs P Richardson, Mr H Wharton, Mrs Weston, Mr Robert Home, Mrs Wilson, Mr Chas Meadows, seated in front, coached the winning set. 2 Nassagaweya Public School choir sing the Vesper Hymn. 3 This group of ladies were contestants in the old-time Fashion Display. Winners in the class were Mrs Robert Anderson and Mrs Wm Buck. 4 Leading off the Calithumpian parade on Saturday afternoon were these five members of the original Brook-

vile Band of 1885. 5 The Nassagaweya Federation of Agriculture captured first prize for the best float in the Parade. 6 Mrs. W. H. Leachman won the prize for having come the greatest distance to the Centennial. She resides at Inglewood, California. 7 The float-entry of the Milton Milling Co. in Saturday's Parade. 8 Reeve VanSickle and M J Carton, chairman of the Historical Committee look over the History of Nassagaweya prepared in commemoration of the Centennial. 9 Another one of the ancient models displayed in the Parade by J Rutherford. 10 The float of the Nassagaweya Women's Institute which took second prize depicts the four periods in the Centennial. 11 Some of the ten thousand people that renewed acquaintances at the Centennial. 12 The float of the P. L. Robertson Mfg Co. another of the entries in the giant Parade. 13 One of the ancient vehicles that hugged its way around in the Calithumpian Parade. 14 Ladies of the Nassagaweya Women's Institute float representing the one hundred years, look over a horse-power, one of the ancient implements on display last Saturday. 15 Winners and their accompanists in the Fiddlers Contest, left to right: Tom Saunders winner in the over 65 years class, Mrs. Wilson accompanist, John McGregor second prize winner in the under 65 years class, Mrs Dorothy O'Rourke first prize winner in the under 65 years class and Mrs J Evans, accompanist. 16 Col. the Hon. Thomas Kennedy delivers his address to a huge crowd, gathered in front of the platform. Staff Photos

DISTRICT NEWS

Various Items Concerning Activities in Communities Nearby Where Many of Our Readers are Interested

ROCKWOOD

The funeral of the late Mr. John Graham who passed away last Friday was largely attended Monday afternoon with services at the United Church, presided by a short service at his late home, Third Lane, Erasmus. Rev. John Oliver was in charge. Pall bearers were Messrs. Wilbur Patterson, Frank Day, Ross Gordon, Ben Hocking, Frank Osterlander and A. B. Root. Honorary bearers were Messrs. H. S. Hoaking, J. A. Little, Frank Moore, Chas. H. Harris, Jesse Gordier and Geo. H. Weaver. Numerous floral wreaths which bore silent tribute to the esteem in which deceased was held, were carried by younger members of the family circle. Members of the family circle who mourn his loss: Mrs. C. Russell, of Kitchener; Mrs. Lorne Robson at home; Mrs. Frank Hall, Margaret and Evelyn of Guelph. The late

Mr. Graham was in his 74th year and predeceased by his wife, formerly Eliza Nellis. A daughter also predeceased him, as the result of an accident several years ago. Interments took place in Fairview Cemetery, Acton. At the morning service in the United Church, Rev. John Oliver officiated at a baptismal ceremony for the infant of Mr and Mrs. James Milne. Mr. Corrie of Burlington conducted service at St. Peter's church, in the absence of Rev. W. G. Luxton who was at his former charge. No service at the Presbyterian Church. Mr and Mrs. Ivan Whiteside of Saskatchewan are welcome visitors in the community, and with relatives, Mr and Mrs. Geo. Bayne, Mr. Thos. G. Hutchinson. Also Mrs. Kerns of Saskatoon, Sask. with Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Jolliffe. Miss Alma Stokoy of Massachusetts is visiting her grandparents, Mr and Mrs. H. S. Hoaking and other relatives in the community. Other recent, week-end and holiday visitors: Mrs. George Adamson, Toronto; Mr. John Gray, Toronto; Mrs. H. Edmondson and friend of Hamilton; Mr and Mrs. G. R. Ross and family of Brantford; Mr and Mrs. Hugh Alton of Galt; Mr and Mrs. Ted Jestin of Everton; Mr and Mrs. Kenneth Milne of Acton; Mr and Mrs. Arthur Rudd of Owen Sound; Mrs. Alex. Hamilton of Lucknow. A number of our townfolks have been out of town for a holiday. Mr. Don Hill; Mr and Mrs. Ralph Hodgson; Mr and Mrs. George Day and family; Mr and Mrs. Albert Mathey and family; Mr and Mrs. M. Milne. Fine weather favored Civic Holiday activities here. A calithumpian parade was held, forming up on Valley Road, adjacent to Horrocks' mill dam, and was of an interesting variety, including the young folks as well as groupings which was witnessed by a large number, including motoring parties on their way through town, who stopped to see the fun. The parade ended up in Exhibition Park, followed by baseball games and horse-shoe pitching. Ball teams on the afternoon's program were Rockwood vs. Hillsburg; Everton vs. York Road, with playoffs in the evening by Rockwood and York Road, the latter winning the game. A booth was well patronized afternoon and evening. Among prizes won during the events, was an electric iron on a draw ticket by Miss Pat Lanfoot. A dance finished the day's events, in the Town Hall. A number from Rockwood attended the Nassagaweya Centennial. Among those present from a distance was Mr. Kenneth McLennan of Guelph, who was the oldest person in attendance, 95 years, 2 months and 7 days and he went to school in the district.

LIMEHOUSE

Diana and Beed, Shelbourne, have been holidaying at Weston for two weeks. Mrs. A. C. Patterson and Joy have been visiting the Smiths at Weston. Mrs. A. W. Norton, Mr. Lorne Norton and Miss Lois Mills attended the Trotter-Kantz wedding in the Congregational Church at Stratford on Saturday. Mrs. Norton was soloist. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mills visited at Orillia and Severn River recently. Mr and Mrs. Jas. Noble and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Noble and Michael are holidaying on Manitoulin Island. Mr. Wm. Gordon and sons attended the Old Boys reunion at Fesswater on Monday. Our local girl pipers were to Port Albert last week-end and will take part in reunion celebrations at Teeswater on Wednesday evening. Recent visitors include: Mr and Mrs. Frank Anthony of Shakespeare with the Jas. Anthony's; Miss Doris Brownridge of Ashgrove with the F. T. C. Browns; Mr and Mrs. Ted Morrow and Elaine with Mrs. R. Lane; Mr and Mrs. Williams and baby and Mr. Fred Anthony on Sunday and Lorna Klingbolt, that week with the Askins; Mr and Mrs. C. Paulusse and baby of Scotland and Mr. Francis Paulusse of Pembroke with the O. Mulers; Mr and Mrs. L. Law and children of Brampton and the D. S. McDonalds with the Gabsys on Saturday. Mr and Mrs. Lowden and children of Windsor with Mrs. Gale and Miss Ivana; Mr. W. I. Newton of Barrie with his mother on Sunday.

Hills-Sturm of Toronto with the A. Spitzers last week. Those who helped make the Stay-At-Home Camp at Georgetown such a success deserve a great deal of credit. The Friday evening closing exercises in Knox Church were well worth attending, too. Mr and Mrs. W. Shelbourne visited at Weston on Sunday. Mr. Glen Scott is on holidays at Truis Pistoles, Quebec, this week. Mrs. J. Simi has arrived from Holland with her three children to join her husband who has been employed on the Cook farm since his arrival a couple of months ago. DISCOVERED IN 1895 X-rays were discovered by the German physicist, William Rontgen in 1895.

Thanks to All!

For the fine cooperation and helpfulness of everyone which made the Nassagaweya Centennial such a notable success we say, "Thanks a Million to Everyone."

REEVE AND COUNCIL Nassagaweya Township