IN MEMORIAM

GUTHRIE—In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, F. J. Jerry T. Guthrie, lost with his crew over Germany, July 29, 1944.

He is not dead, he only sleeps
 Life's battle now is over
 He now is safe, where no one weeps
 And peace reigns ever more.
 Father, Mother, Hector and Dora, and Betty

PELLEYMAN—In loving memory of Lance Corporal A. E. Pellyman who died of wounds, August 5th, 1944.

Looking back with tenderness
 Over the years and the time
 We bless the years we spent with him,
 And leave the rest to God.
 Each time he has a picture,
 So young, so loving and true
 No wonder our hearts are broken
 And longing, dear Allan for you
 He did his best for those he loved,
 And those he loved remember.

Mum, Dad, Brother and Sisters
ZAJAC—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Joseph Zajac, who passed away July 28, 1947.

Time speeds on, two years have
 Since death its gloom, its shadows
 Within our home, where all seem
 As if they had never been,
 And took from us a shining light,
 We miss that light, and ever will,
 His vacant place there is none can
 Fill,
 Down here we mourn, but not in
 For 'up in heaven we will meet again.
 Ever remembered by
 Wife and Family

Plan Re-Union When Acton Becomes Town

tract terminated at the end of the month.

The Clerk gave figures on the consumption of water in Acton in order that sewage disposal could be studied and the distribution of the costs. Debiture figures were also given for this study.

Council discussed at some length the location of the swimming pool in the park.

The Clerk was instructed to secure a sign for designating the speed in the Park. The Department of Highways were to be contacted regarding painting white lines and installing a blinker light at the corner of Mill and Main Streets.

The Clerk was instructed to call for tenders and consult the Municipal Board regarding putting a concrete top on the bridge on Church Street.

Council discussed the arrangements desired for a fitting celebration commemorating the raising of Acton to the status of a town. This would also make provision for a reunion to be held next year and details will have to be started soon for a successful event.
