The Gargantuan job of the Directors of the Acton Fall Fair again amures a successful fair Each year almost the same group work to make Acton's Fair the best possible for the interest of the town and country folk No matter how hard the Directors work, you the exhibitor make the fair. Without the taking, flower and sewing displays there would be no hall Without the work of bringing in stock to show there still could be no fair. The directors, the crowd all appreciate your effort in making this year's show the best yet. We are like the Directors, for without you, our customers, there would be no J. B. Mackenzie & Son. Like the directors their incentive to you is prize money, coupled with the spirit of competition, ours is to sell quality products at good prices coupled with good service. See you at the Fair.
