Great Interest When New Assessment Figures Announced

Colin McColl at $3013 from last rear's $200 considered the increase too much in view of the street and conditions in this section of town. John Brankiewicz at $3383 from $1750 last year objected but found that at this figure his taxes would likely be lower.

Arlie White at $1700 to last year's $750 asked for a recheck on the property.

Albert Van Gils asked for farm property adulatment. The chicken house on skids was not assessble. Gordon Cunningham felt the land at $1234 was too high. Howard Allison at $2008 had the same complaint Ed Jennings asked an adujatment on his bowling alleys. Wm. Thompson at $2930 asked a reduction.

Ross Ballentine's garage at $7575 was to be reviewed by the assessors. Earl Lambert from $1100 last year to $3,505 asked adjustment Ernest Coles total of $2,600 was asked to be considered. Harry Oakley at $1373 was felt to be high. John Stewart asked comparison of his $3814 with assessment on similar properties Anthony Hufnagel from $1500 last year to $3639 this year asked consideration of farm property. Charles Townsley for a total of all citizens who can would mark 1982 from last year's $550 asked for a check of the property and its condition.

The assessors agreed to review many of the cases about which a complaint was made to recheck the figures and the conditions of land and property and will make a report to Council who will then make submitted.

Court of Revision adjourned at midnight and Council started session at 12.30 a.m.
