Mackengie News

We are again pleased to announce that we will have ample stock of Canadian cement for your convenience by the first of next week.

The unveiling of the addition to the Soldiers' Memorial will take place on November 11th, 1949, a time set aside for us all to pay tribute to those brave men and women who paid the supreme sacrifice for our freedom in World

Warf I and II. We will have the pleasure of meeting in person one of our distinguished leaders, the Hon Ray Lawson, who will be here to lead in the unveiling ceremony. As many as can should turn out to, this and really, prove Acton the grand town it is. We'll see you driving slowly through Acton.
