ROCKWOOD

Last month, a men's club was organized in the United Church which was well attended, the objective being to create fellowship, education and recreation. The newly formed executive plan to provide meetings once a month of an interesting nature in a social way. The executive committee is as follows:

Honorary presidents, Rev. J. W. Oliver and Dr. R. O. Joffitt; president, Ralph Hodgson; vice president, Ross Gordon; secretary, George Day; treasurer, Stanley Harris; publicity, Thos. Gellatly. Last Wednesday, a well attended meeting was held with Ralph Hodgson presiding and George Day as secretary.

Mr. Frank Gullid led in a short session of community singing which was enjoyed by all present. A feature of the evening was a film showing by Hamco Coke of Hamilton, dealing with the World Series Baseball of 1940, followed by a comic strip. At the conclusion of the films, refreshments were served in the Sunday School room and a social time enjoyed by all present.

Last week being Education Week in Public Schools, open house was held Thursday evening at the Public School when parents of scholars and others interested in school work had the privilege of seeing the work of pupils on hand for the evening.

During the evening, Mr. Dave Armstrong, principal of the School, showed some films of an interesting nature, two of them dealing with wild life, also method of transportation to points further north during part of the seasons, and the other film dealing with water fowl, of different species, also their flights at times from the North American continent to South America. One particular point in connection with bird life was in connection with humming birds and their ways of flying around and among flowers which proved interesting to those present.

A few of our citizens have been laid up for brief periods with the flu during the past few days. Rev. J. W. Oliver was also confined to his home and during his absence from church on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Erwin conducted services at the United Church.

At St. John's Church Sunday morning, Holy Communion was observed.

Frequent snowstorms over the week-end provided snow shovelling to some extent. One evidence that spring is in the offing, the appearance of crows in the neighborhood.

WHERE, OH WHERE?

An afternoon newspaper remarks that a certain amount of money spent by a school board was a grant from the province and the rest was raised "by taxation."

Where did the province get the money to make the grant?

CAMPBELLVILLE

Mrs. Wilfrid Greenlee was the hostess to St. David's Presbyterian Ladies' Aid March meeting when Mrs. George Inglis opened with the call to prayer followed by a hymn and worship by Mrs. Henry Ramshaw.

Mrs. A. T. Moore had charge of the devotions. Mrs. Wilfrid Greenlee, secretary, read the minutes and items of business.

Mrs. R. C. Menzies reported for the Vestry Cheer and photo committee. Mrs. A. T. Moore gave the treasurer's report. Roll call was answered by naming a way to keep well. Mrs. Wallace King gave a reading. Mrs. Samuel Cairns favoured with a piano solo.

Miss Anderson, Public Health Nurse, addressed the meeting and told of the work of the Halton Co. Health Unit.

Misses Marianne and Lois Greenlee sang a duet. Mrs. Archie Smith gave a reading. Plans were made for an April fowl supper with Mrs. Howson, Lush, Gordon, McPhail, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Miss Katherine McPhedran in charge.

Mrs. E. D. Mahon expressed the thanks to Miss Anderson and all those who took part in the meeting. Mrs. Menzies closed with prayer observing one minute's silence for the late Mrs. Strachan, also a special prayer for Mr. Frank Hill for a speedy recovery.

Dainty refreshments were served during a social half hour which followed.

Program Committee are Mrs. Jas. Mahon, Mrs. Henry Ramshaw and Mrs. Wallace King.

Mrs. Campbell Agnew entertained on Thursday evening in honor of her daughter, Helen, on the occasion of her 12th birthday. Many greetings and gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Inglis were week-end guests with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Donovan of Hamilton.

Miss Lois Inglis was hostess to Grace Mission meeting on Saturday afternoon when 8 girls and 5 ladies were present. In the absence of the president the vice president, Miss Anna Hurten had charge. After the first hymn Marianne Greenlee led in prayer.

Miss Audrey Hurten gave the Secretary's report and Mrs. Wilfrid Greenlee the treasurer's report. Plans were made for a mother and daughter banquet. Miss Ruth Roberts gave the cheer report.

Miss Audrey Hurten read the story of the "Watch Goat Boy." Miss Helen Agnew favoured with a piano solo. Miss Donna Mitchell gave a recitation.

Mrs. George Inglis read the first chapter of the new study book, "Where the Carp Banners Fly." Roll call was answered by a favourite hymn.

Jane Smith closed with prayer after the last hymn. A work period followed after which refreshments were served.

Miss Ariel Mitchell has the measles. We wish her a speedy recovery.

About 30 attended the No. 1 Farm Forum meeting on Monday evening in the school when Mr. Jack Early was chairman for the discussion, "Can we farm co-operatively?" Mr. Bruce Small, Mr. Albert Stewart and Mr. Gordon McPhail were group leaders and the result of the discussion was:

1. In some places farm forums are too far apart.

2. It would not be fair to have an inexperienced farmer in the group.

3. It was decided three or four farmers could co-operate and use one threshing machine and corn thrasher.

Progressive euchre was enjoyed with prizes going to Helen Agnew, Mrs. Edgar Cairns, Jack Early and Walter Ferrer. Committee in charge were Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Small, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace King and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Inglis.

A fire of unknown origin broke out on Saturday at noon when Mrs. Carl Stokes went to the bedroom to care for her baby. She noticed the partition on fire and every effort was used to extinguish the fire, which they did. Windows and partitions were smashed.

Mr. Muir of Toronto Bible College preached for a call at St. David's Church on Sunday and Mrs. J. K. Mahon, Mrs. R. J. Early sang a duet.

Rev. Mr. Walker of Sterling will preach for a call next Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. Robt. Menzies attended the Executive meeting of the Guelph Presbyterian at the Y.W.C.A. in Guelph on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dales and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nicholson were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cairns.

Misses Beth Balle and Sue Paxton of Hamilton were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Balle last week, also Dr. and Mrs. Eggleston of Toronto were Sunday guests with the Balle's.

Miss Kaureen Roberts of Hamilton spent the week-end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Anderson and son Peter, reported an enjoyable trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson entertained the No. 6, Kelso Farm Forum on Monday evening. Mrs. Edward Parsons was chairlady and discussion leaders were Lillian Robertson and Leonard Stokes, for the topic, "Co-operative Farming." It was generally agreed that cooperative farming would not prove successful in this district, but probably would in the Western provinces.

Progressive euchre was enjoyed and prize winners were Mrs. Lloyd Stokes, Mrs. Duncanson Reid, Leonard Stokes and Allan Parsons. A beautiful lunch was convoked by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stokes.

The March meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. David's Church was held at the home of Mrs. Wilfrid Greenlee with the President, Mrs. Geo. Inglis in the chair. The president opened the meeting with a short poem, "Going to Church." After the singing of a hymn, prayer was offered by Mrs. H. Ramshaw. The devotions were taken by Mrs. A. T. Moore. The theme was Depth of Love. Reports were presented by the secretary and treasurer. The Cheer Secretary reported seven letters and cards sent to shut-ins and read letters of thanks.

Plans were made for an April fowl supper. Readings were given by Mrs. Wallace King ("Chill sauce and Church Supper") and Mrs. Archie Smith, "That Little Boy of Mine." Mrs. B. Cairns favoured with a piano solo and Marianne and Lois Greenlee sang a lovely duet. Miss Anderson, the Public Health Nurse of Halton, gave a very interesting and informative talk on the advantages of the Health Unit. Mrs. E. D. Mahon on behalf of the Society expressed the appreciation of all present to Miss Anderson and all others who had taken part in the program. The offering was received and dedicated by the president. A moment's silence was observed in memory of the late Mrs. J. I. Strachan, the wife of a former minister of this church who passed to higher service on February 26th.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. R. C. Menzies, a glass of half hour was enjoyed while the hostess, assisted by a committee, served a delicious lunch. Twenty-five ladies were present.

BUSINESS MEN'S TEAM LEAD VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE BY 4 POINTS

By failing to array a full team, the Independents defaulted three games to the Tannery Reds in the Volleyball League this week.

In the second match, the powerful Business Men overwhelmed Micro Plastics 15-8, 15-6 and 15-8. The Plastics were not up to their usual form.

After a short rest, the Business Men came back to play a postponed match against the Tannery Blues. Although they encountered stiffer opposition they added three points to their record by the scores of 15-7, 15-8 and 15-5.

In the last match of the evening the Y's Men conceded three points to the Tannery Blues. We are inclined to believe that the semi-monthly supper was a little too much for a few of the Y's Men players.

League Standing

Business Men	P	W	L	P
Tannery Reds	21	19	2	19
Micro Plastics	21	15	6	15

KNOX Y. W. EVENING AUXILIARY AT HOME OF MISS LAURA WILES

The regular meeting of Knox Young Women's Evening Auxiliary was held on March 8th at the home of Miss Laura Wiles. The president, Mrs. F. Anderson, was in the chair and opened with a call to worship. The group leader, Mrs. D. C. Maplesden, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. E. Marshall read the scripture and Miss E. Cole took the prayer. The study book, "Toward a New Dawn in Japan" was taken by Miss M. Garvin.

Two musical numbers were enjoyed at the meeting. Miss Margaret Brown and Mrs. A. K. Mann rendered a piano duet and Mrs. Bowen sang a vocal solo.

During the business session, it was planned to hold the spring thankoffering fireside hour in April. The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. R. H. Armstrong. An Irish contest was given by the president. This was followed by a dainty lunch served by the group in charge.

ART OF TAPESTRY ALIVE IN BRITAIN

The Edinburgh Tapestry Company, whose aim is to keep the art of tapestry alive, is holding an exhibition of work in London from January 20 to February 11. A number of distinguished contemporary artists have provided designs. Original Soho looms dated 1608 are still in use.
