Halton County W. M. Societies Meet in Oakville

Officers Installed for the Year—Hear Reports and Several Fine Speakers

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Church met in St. John's United Church, Oakville, on Wednesday, April 19, for the 21st annual meeting of the Halton Presbyterial. This is the 25th Anniversary of the Union.

President Mrs. G. W. Bridle welcomed all present and opened the meeting with the W.M.S. theme song and call to worship by Rev. Paulson of Oakville. The worship service by Milton Evening Auxiliary was much enjoyed by all. Those taking part were Mrs. A. W. Woodley, pres. Mrs. R. Cole, Mrs. E. B. Clements pianist, Mrs. K. O. Foster, soloist. All present were much enlightened as to the matter of supplies when Miss Bishop, Dominion Board Supply Secretary, told of the procedure taking place before being shipped to the needy. Last year 18,000 tons of clothing was shipped. Two articles in great demand at all times are quilts and baby clothes. She reminded us how necessary that all clothing be washed, mended, all buttons in place, before being sent prepaid to Toronto Supply department, Ossington Ave.

Another item of interest was a nursery in Halifax station where DPs leave their children while passing through the red tape of entering our country. These children never having seen such toys, cry when they have to leave them behind so they appeal for toys sent to the supply department so that each child could take a toy as they travel onward to their new home. Such items as new postcards and air mail stationery for adult use and dolls and toys for the children are in demand.

The W.M.S. theme for 1950 is "Advance" and Mrs. E. M. Headhead spoke of the advance in a number of organizations. An interesting Literature table was on display at the end of the morning session.

A lovely dinner, served by Oakville W.A. was greatly enjoyed and Mrs. Reid, Oakville, extended greetings from the Presbytery. Mrs. W. N. Brownridge, 1st Vice President, extended greetings from the Halton W.A. Mrs. Watts, Oakville W.M.S., welcomed all present, reported by Mrs. F. Beaumont.

The Afternoon Session opened at 2 p.m. with worship and "In Memoriam" by Burlington W.M.S. Offering received and dedicated by Mrs. A. E. Pickard, Miss A. Blanchard told of our allocation, followed by the treasurer's report, by Mrs. Ross Segsworth.

The guest speaker, Miss Agnes Hamperad from Trinidad is a high school teacher attending college in Toronto on a scholarship. She spoke of the school and United Church in Trinidad. The children spend their first hour in school in devotion, hymns, prayer and scripture readings.

A report of the Nominating Committee was given by Mrs. F. Beaumont. Miss Annie Bishop conducted installation of officers.

BUSINESS MEN STILL LEAD IN VOLLEYBALL AT Y.M.C.A. LEAGUE

Only one official match was played last week in the Acton Volleyball League. The Business Men and the Tannery Reds put on a terrific battle. The Business Men winning all three games, but were taxed to the limit in doing so.

The absence of one player caused the Tannery Blues to give up three games to the Independents. A lively practice scrimmage was held however, in lieu of regular games.

The Y's Men officially dissolved, paved the way for three points to the Micro Plastics who turned out for a practice. In the Business Men-Tannery Red highlight match the latter faded after some early resistance to give the B.M. the game 15-3. The second game was a different story and only after a long tough battle by both sides did the B.M. manage to win 15-13.

In the final, a stellar performance by both teams resulted in another win for the B.M. by 17-15. The winners came from behind to win in the overtime.
