Obituary

Obituary

ROBERT PATTERSON

The family, community and friends were shocked to learn of the sudden death on April 25th of Robert Patterson. Although in his eightieth year, Mr. Patterson had been about as usual and was at Thompson Motors Garage when he was suddenly stricken and passed away.

Born in Caledon Township, Robert was the youngest and last surviving member of the family of the late David and Jane Patterson. Fifty-two years ago he married Mary Carline and for forty-five years they farmed in the vicinity of Rockwood and Acton. In 1944 they came to Acton to retire and reside in their residence on Young Street. Just two years ago they had the pleasure of marking with the late John, both of Hamilton and one sister, Miss Ella Draye of Hinckley, Leicestershire, England three grandchildren.

Mr. Patterson was an esteemed and respected resident of Acton. His friendly and warm greeting will be missed by many friends who join in sympathy to his wife and family in their pining.

He was a faithful member of Knox Presbyterian Church and has for a number of years been a member of the session. It was rarely that he missed the services of worship in his church.

Besides his wife, he leaves six sons, Alldon, Ross, Arthur (enroute home from California), Elliott, Wilbur and Russell. Seven grandchildren also remain to sever his memory.

The funeral was held on Friday afternoon with a private service at the Victor H. Rumley Funeral Home followed by service in Knox church conducted by his minister, Rev. R. H. Armstrong. Here many friends gathered in tribute to his life.

Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Geo. Bain, Norman Armstrong, Sims McLean, J. Hargrave, Ray Thompson and F. J. McCutcheon. Members of the Church Session acted as honorary bearers and flower bearers.

THE DENNIS-BLOCK WEDDING AT HOME OF BRIDE IN GUELPH

White, yellow and green streamers and arrangements of yellow daffodils and pale pink tulips decorated the home of Mr and Mrs Frederick L. Block, Paisley Road, Guelph, for the wedding of their daughter, Joan Marion, and James H. Dennis, son of Mr and Mrs Harry Dennis, Acton.

Rev. A. E. Block officiated at the afternoon ceremony on Saturday, April 22. Mrs. Norman McKenzie played the wedding music and friends of the bride, Misses Patricia and Catharine Linford sang "O Perfect Love" and "Because". Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in white slipper satin fashioned with stand-up neckline embroidered in seed pearls, pleated peplum and long pointed sleeves. A seed pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of Sweet-heart red roses.

Miss Barbara Anne Block, as bridesmaid for her sister, wore a floor length gown of pale pink, embroidered Swiss organdy, styled with rounded net neckline. Her headdress was of pale pink net and she carried a nosegay of pale yellow roses and narcissus. Mr. Edward McGiloway of Acton, was best man.

The club room of the Royal Hotel was decorated in pale pink and white for the reception which followed the ceremony. Guests were received by the bride's mother in dove grey with large black picture hat, black accessories and corsage of pale pink roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a dusky rose embroidered gown, gray hat, black accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

For a wedding trip through the Catskill and Poconos Mountains to New York city, the bride wore a navy gabardine suit and navy and white accessories. Guests attended the wedding from Chatham, Hespeler, Galt, Acton, Burlington, Ayr, Rockwood, Ospringe and Toronto.
