Celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary and appointed as delegates from Acton Baptist Church to the Baptist Convention of Ontario and Quebec in Montreal, last week were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Reid. They toured Eastern Ontario for a week, travelling by way of Peterborough and the Lakes district to Ottawa where they took in two sessions of parliament and were royally entertained by an M. P. friend. They were also shown through the entire building, including the Peace Tower, the wonderful library and the Press Room where copies of all Canadian papers are on file, the Acton Free Press being one of them. The trip then led to Montreal where the Pastor of the Convention Church was Rev. J. A. Johnson, formerly of Acton. After two days in attendance there, they proceeded homeward along the St. Lawrence and Lake Ontario, having a boat trip among the 1000 Islands from Gananoque on their way.

RECORD SETTLEMENT OF RIMOUSKI FIRE LOSSES

Something of a record for settling insurance claims arising out of the Rimouski fire is reported by The Financial Post. Following an emergency plan formulated by fire insurance companies during the war, most indemnity cheques to individual home owners were delivered within a week of the fire itself and the larger losses are also being adjusted with record despatch.

Total fire losses may reach $30 millions but insurance officials hesitate to make any estimate of the insurance loss. The Post says. Some 200 companies are involved, and while individual companies know how much they have paid and what their total liability is, it has not been possible as yet to estimate the total value of insured property destroyed. Attention has been centred on paying losses, rather than in compiling statistics covering the whole situation.

The popularity of every-day greeting card averages nine to twelve months, merchandising experts say.

2 Threaten Appeals To County Council Equal Assessment

dividing aforementioned area into two parts." Signed by Thomas Ball, George V. Rose, Leonard Coulson, A. Roy Coulter and Sherwood T. Coulson.

A touch of humour was injected into the lengthy session when the clerk read a communication from Waterloo council requesting Halton council to enter a quartette in the Barber Shop Quartette contest being held in conjunction with the Galt Fair in September. Members accepted Waterloo council's challenge and selected Howard Litchfield, Rev. of Oakville, to gather the singers and whip them into shape for the affair.

A resolution sponsored by Dick and Litchfield was approved, giving the Halton Home for the Aged committee power to authorize the architects to call for tenders to construct the new building. However, council would consider tenders and pass on the successful bidder. As insurance on the county buildings would soon expire, council decided it would call for tenders on the new policy. It was also agreed that the per diem rate for the maintenance of ward of the Children's Aid Society would be $120 per day. Warden VanSickle explained the previous rate was $115 per day. The higher cost of living accounted for the increase, he said.

John McNeilson, reeve of Nelson, who has been absent from the last two council meetings, has been ill the members were informed. The clerk was authorized to send him a letter and flowers.

A deputation of five local truckers, headed by George Robertson, waited on council to seek the reason why they were asked to take a reduction in their hauling rates. They explained that they had been hauling road repairing material for the county. This matter was left in the hands of the road committee for consideration.

Deputy Reeves Joe Wickson, Ken Holdsworth and George Leale were deputized by the Warden to arrange a county picnic and report their findings at the next special meeting of council.

Reeves from Acton and Esquimaux felt grants for fall fairs in the county should all be the same while others argued the Milton Fair was actually a county affair, and one of the biggest of its kind.

Charles Laundon, representing the Halton Agricultural Society in asking for the usual grant, told council a new fence had been installed around the park and it was the intention to make improvements from year to year. Nelson Robertson, Esquimaux Agricultural Society questioned the difference of the grants, stating it was hard to make an improvement unless increases were made.

However, council approved an amendment that grants of $300 be made to the Halton Agricultural Society and $200 each to the Acton Fair and Esquimaux Agricultural Society, defeating a motion that all fairs be given $250 each.

"That is a good way to kill two birds. All grants should be the same," Reeve Tyler, Acton, retorted when the amendment was approved.

Reeve George Currie introduced Mr. Presman, of the Ontario Dept. of Lands and Forests, who reported all trees in reforestation lots were in excellent condition. A large number of trees had been planted this year and they are in good growing condition. He announced the annual tree planting competition was under way and many rural schools were taking part. Prizes will be awarded to the winning school later.

Accounts approved and ordered to be paid included: County Home, $40.00; Assessment, $84.65; Printing, $177.33; County buildings, $588.12; County roads, $22,939.28; Finance, $4,198.62; Hospitals, $1,458.50; Agriculture and Reforestation, $399.20.

GUNS VS. OLD AGE PENSIONS

The St. Laurent Government is going to be faced with a "guns versus pensions" dilemma in 1951, says Kenneth R. Wilson, Ottawa editor of the Financial Post.

The dilemma is being brought into sharp focus for the first time by the expectation that the Parliamentary Committee on Old Age Pensions will recommend at least $40 a month, without means test, for all persons 70 or over.

The new social security program would require at least $225 millions more than at present, and a further $80 millions if means test pensions are to be paid to those aged 65 to 70.

Meanwhile, Canada's new responsibilities under the Atlantic Pact are almost certain to increase defense costs considerably. Most of the funds for pensions or guns or both will have to come out of new taxation.

INGLES-MOSSOP WEDDING SOLEMNIZED KNOX CHURCH COUPLE WILL RESIDE IN ACTON

Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown was the scene of a lovely wedding Saturday, June 10 when Jean Alberta Mossop, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Daniel Mossop, R. R. 4, Georgetown and Kenneth Silas Ingles, son of Mrs. Ernest Ingles, Acton and the late Mr. Ingles, were united in marriage. Rev. Alex Calder performed the wedding ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown was of imported white satin, fashioned with bustle effect and a long train. The lace yoke was embroidered with seed pearls and her coronet headpiece was also made of seed pearls, from which a full length veil fell. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep red roses.

The bride's attendants included her sister as matron of honor, Miss George Duke of Maple Ave., Georgetown, who was gowned in pale orchid net over taffeta. A set of daisies trimmed the long torso body and the neckline. Her hair with shoulder length veil matched the dress and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses and maiden hair fern. Bridesmaids were Miss Grace Foster, Cheltenham, and Miss Marion Stomp, Glen Williams, wearing gowns fashioned the same as the matron of honor. Miss Foster in pale green nylon net over taffeta and Miss Stomp in apricot pink net over taffeta, both with matching headpieces. They carried nosegays of pink and yellow roses. The flower girl was Gayle Moszell, Acton, niece of the bridegroom, in floor length frock of yellow silk nylon net with a wreath of flowers in her hair and carrying a little basket of sweet peas.

Mr. Bert Taylor of Barrie was groomsmen and ushers were the groom's brother Mr. Bill Ingles, Acton and the bride's brother, Mr. Dan Mossop, Miss Jean Halley, the soloist sang "O Promise Me" with Mrs. Wright, Georgetown at the organ.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the bride's home where seventy guests were received. Mrs. Mossop wore navy blue sheer and corsage of roses. She was assisted by Mrs. Ingles, who wore a pastel blue flowered dress with navy accessories and corsage of roses.

For the wedding trip to North Bay the bride changed to a going away suit of navy blue gabardine with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Ingles will reside in Acton.

ANNUAL PICNIC MEETING RUTH NELSON MISSION BAND FEATURES GAMES, LUNCH

The Ruth Nelson Mission Band closed for the summer with the annual picnic meeting at the United Church last Thursday.

The children played a number of games and entered a variety of races. Two sides were drawn up, headed by Georgena Plester and Edna Jennings, for the relay races of carrying an apple on a spoon and a bean race of moving beans from one dish to another with a straw. These were enjoyed very much and both were won by Georgena's team.

At the end of the racing a bountiful lunch was served by the women of the Missionary Society.

Here's what a kitchen in Morris, Manitoba, looked like after the Red River had done its worst. The warped cupboards, peeling paint, damaged kitchen utensils and almost unlimited quantities of mud and dirt, are illustrative of the damage done to F. Recklesdler's entire home. Replacement of furniture, clothing, and personal effects is the responsibility of the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund. Contributions may be mailed directly to the Fund in Winnipeg, or paid into any bank in Canada.
