No swimming pool yet.

Colden wheat is quite evident in the roadside fields.

Mr. Ted Tyler has purchased a new bus and plans to have it ready for the fall school term.

Grading on Main Street and several others has helped the condition of local roads considerably.

The usual 13th of July was quite quiet this year with parades scheduled for the previous Saturday.

Seems to be the picnic season and the Halton Community Park is getting a large share of the organized activity.

Tenders have not been let for the paving of Highway 25 yet but there were quite a number of tenders made.

Sun tan and sunburn season. The hot sun can leave some blistering marks that are usually quite uncomfortable and unhealthy.

The Short Camp sponsored by the local Y got underway Monday with the boys on the first trip. The girls left Wednesday morning.

The softball game between the Acton girls and the Guelph City League Tuesday evening at Arkell resulted in a score of 12-11 for Acton.

This is the season of flies and mosquitoes and both are certainly in evidence. Both are also a dangerous thing to have around and provide a good place to expend a war effort.

The grandstand at the park is never very inviting at any time but the lime or other substance sprinkled over the seats and floor make it even more unattractive for those attending events there.

Mr. L. Stumpf of Rockwood suffered a head injury which he received while working on the local sewerage installation. A plank fell in the deep ditch in which he was working.

The Bowling Club and Tennis Club seem to be quite active this year. The Bowlers have already made several visits to other greens and the Tennis Club is in a particularly active league for friendly tournaments.

Enjoying a drive Saturday evening, we noticed a fawn on the St. Helena road just on top of the mountain on No. 25 highway. It was quite visible and on further inquiry we find that that is part of the run that also crosses Silver Creek Hill.
