

100 Friends Gather Visit Sask. Family

Nearly one hundred relatives and friends gathered at the beautiful farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Kingsbury on No. 24 highway near Everton last Saturday afternoon to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Murray Kingsbury and family of Regina, Sask.

It is twenty-four years since Murray left the old home, one mile west of Creswell's Corners to go to the west and he is employed in the railway yards in Regina. He says that in that time the farm crops have never held higher promise than this year in Saskatchewan.

A ball game was enjoyed by the younger folk and then there were races for all.

An afternoon of friendly reminiscing and a beautiful lunch set at picnic tables brought a very pleasant afternoon to a close and was enjoyed by everyone present.

Guests attended from Hockley Valley, Ingham, York, Friesen, Nassagaweya, Kitchener, Palmerston, Guelph, Preston, Toronto, Rockwood, Acton and the district surrounding.

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsbury, Doug and Edna, have thought it fitting to have a party in Regina.

Community Park Attracts Visitors

Quite a few are making use of the Community Park adjoining the highway in the village since the addition of a sand box slide and swing chair for young tots.

In the absence of Rev. W. G. Lantton, who is still on his vacation, Mr. Charles Greene of Emmanuel College, Saskatoon, Sask., conducted services at St. John's Church Sunday morning.

Owing to redoubtable operations going on at the Presbyterian Church, no services are being held during the latter part of the month.

The bowling green is a busy place in the evenings. Other bowling enthusiasts from out of town are seen with the local bowlers, the green being kept in good condition for each occasion.

Mr. John R. Smith returned home from the hospital in Guelph last week, much improved in health.

Mrs. George W. Peal who was on the sick list, is able to be around her home as usual.

Miss Irene Hamilton of Chicago, Ill., was home last week.

Mrs. Wm. Pett of Aldershot was also in town last week.

Miss Laura Powers and nephew Douglas Kelly have returned from Fort Erie after a visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Purpura.

Miss Vera Thatcher of Toronto was home for the week-end.

In the absence of Mr. George Day, postmaster, who is on his vacation with Mrs. Day and children, Mrs. Clarence Henderson is looking after his work assisted by Mrs. McLean, who is also helping in the Frigid Locker store.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Knight and son of Palmerston were week-end and Sunday visitors in town.

Dr. and Mrs. Waller and members of family are away on their annual holiday at Kingston. Dr. Brownman is filling in for the time being.

Miss Minnie Nickell left last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Ames in Duluth, Minn.

Life Long Resident Lawrence King Dies

The Busy Bee Institute met on Wednesday in the home of Mrs. A. Pringle. The president, Mrs. McLean was in charge of the meeting. Roll call was answered by a topic for farm forum meeting. A tazaar for the fall was planned and a committee was appointed to buy print for aprons and cotton for pillow cases and lunch cloths.

A committee was appointed to get history of No. 7 district for the Twentieth Anniversary and get it written up in book form. Mrs. Ed Davenport gave a paper and reports were given by standing convicts. Mrs. Pringle served delicatessen refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

The community were sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Lawrence King last Friday. The late Mr. King had been in poor health for some time but was stricken with a heart attack a few days before his death. He spent all his life in this community and was the son of Mrs. R. King and the late Mr. King. The funeral was held on Monday from the Victoria R. Funeral Home to Parkview Cemetery, Acton. Rev. Armstrong of Knox Church, Acton conducted the service. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and a son, Ron, and also his mother. The sympathy of the community is with them in their bereavement.

Local Friends At E. Watson Funeral

Rev. and Mrs. Foreman have returned home following a week's vacation spent at a lodge near Minden.

Miss Glad Suter of Niagara Falls is holidaying with her grandparents and aunt Mrs. G. Suter and Mrs. F. Haldie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Craig and Joan of Georgetown are spending their holidays with Mrs. Craig's father, Mr. R. Hunter.

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson Mosborn, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robertson Guelph.

Mrs. E. Fisher was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid on Wednesday evening.

Since sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of the late Evan Watson, whose tragic death occurred following an accident last Thursday, Evan attended the local school and made many friends with his quiet, pleasant disposition. Several attended the funeral at Guelph on Saturday.

Survivors are busy through the village measuring for the new highway. Local residents are hoping speed regulations will be curbed more closely, as now many motorists fail to slow down and use the road as a speedway, endangering many lives.

Friends of Mrs. R. J. Matthews are sorry to learn she underwent an operation last Saturday at the Guelph hospital where she has been confined for over a week but wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, Sr. of Toronto are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. McKinney and Warren.

Get away from business occasionally. It's cheaper to take a voluntary vacation than wait till the doctor orders it.
