CREELMAN LILIES, ROSES, FERN DECORATE UNITED CHURCH FOR HURD-WATSON WEDDINGS

Creelman lilies, roses and ferns decorated Rockwood United Church for the wedding on Saturday, July 29 of Doris Martha Watson, daughter of Mr. John R. Watson and the late Mrs. Watson of London, Ontario and Maurice J. Hurd, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hurd of South Ealing, England.

Reverend John Olyver officiated at the four o'clock ceremony. Mr. George Day played the wedding music and a friend of the bride sang "God touched the rose" and "The wedding prayer".

Mr. Watson gave his daughter in marriage. She chose a lovely gown of fluorescent white satin fashioned with long tight sleeves and a sweetheart neckline offset by tiny ruffles. Soft flanges ending in a froed panel extended from either shoulder and were caught at the waist with the ruffles. The very full skirt was heavily gathered and fell to a sweeping train and her veil of tulle illusion was caught to a bridal headdress. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink delphiniums.

The maid of honor, Miss Helen Bayne wore apple green nylon marquisette over pale orchid taffeta. The bridesmaids wore green and featured a deep V neckline and the skirt flared gently to the floor. She carried a halo bouquet of lemon shade gladiol and larkspur.

The flower girl, Miss Jean Bayne was in pale pink tulle organza with matching hair bow. Her flowers were a nosegay of pink carnations and white sweet peas.

Harvey Bayne of Rockwood performed the duties of best man and the ushers were Wilbur Watson of Toronto and Tom McGee of Norval.

The church Sunday school rooms were decorated with pink roses baby's breath and pink and white streamers for the reception at five-thirty. The wedding cake, pink streamers, pink tapers and pink roses graced the bride's table. Receiving the guests the bride's aunt wore a navy blue net dress, navy accessories and a corsage of Better Time roses. Mrs. Alvin Root, Mrs. Edgar Johnson, Mrs. W. C. Patterson and Mrs. Wm. Dunbar, Rockwood and Mrs. Alex Scott, Fort Erie served the dainty wedding supper.

For a wedding trip to the Muskoka district the bride donned a cinnamon brown linen suit with accessories and a gardenia corsage. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hurd will make their home in Weston.

Guests were present from Vancouver, Sceptre, Sask; Cabri, Sask; Toronto, London, Norval, Georgetown, Guelph and Acton.

COMBINATION SPRAY

New combination lawn spray and fertilizer or insecticide spreader by Indiana maker is reported in The Financial Post. It has a quart-size receptacle attached to otherwise normal water spray. Water flows through spray from hose, revolving twin arms to water lawn, but draws out liquid fertilizer or insecticide from receptacle, scattering it over lawn with water. A control device regulates strength of solution sprayed. Has plastic stand.

Warnings Finished Summonses Follow

Talking to Corp. Ray Mason the other day we learn that Police are getting an increasing number of complaints about dogs running at large. Warnings have been issued to the owners of offenders. Here's a tip we pass on. If you don't want to pay a fine under the by-law, keep your dog tied up. The warnings are over. Hereafter come the summonses. Don't say we didn't tell you it was coming but confidentially the police are fed up with the complaints and from here on the owners are going to contribute to the municipal funds in fines unless the dogs are kept tied up. Love is a skein of thread, both ends of which are held by a woman, in which she offers to let us wrap ourselves.
