ABSENT NOMINATIONS FROM

14 People Attend Meeting As No Nominations Made

1384 elegible citizens of Acton were absent from the nomination meeting held in the Council Chambers on Wednesday evening. This ! meeting had received the required publicity and was held to fill the choir then presented Mc Clini vacancy caused by the resignation of Tom Nichol which was accepted ich.s (Betty Gibson) with a beauti | tenders because of the water con | tending the event which by Council at their last regular meeting

At the regular meeting of mission felt that the complaints would like to thank their local customers for their sense of fair play which took place this week Every-that these interruptions are as in-that he had received instructions on Tuesday from the HEPC to shut off hot water heaters between the hours of 10 am and 12 noon. The much that the cut-off was necessary to keep essential services go-proximately 3740 feet to be laid on these streets. The plans have been submitted to the Department of Health for their approval, before going to the Department of Municipal Affairs for permission to issue

· Hufnagel property to the Utilities plans for this building, incorporat-

Dominion Hotel pointing out that only cooking appliances could be

(Continued on Page Four)

ing these features in the plans

Among the 16 present at the? meeting altogether there was never more than 14 at any one time Those 14 present were Councillors Greer, Hotchen, Hargrave, Thompson, Rosrell, Reeve Tyler, Deputy Reeve McLeod and Mayor Mason Besides there officials there was Town Foreman Kirkness, Assessor Frank Crump, Mr Youngblut, Mr Bowles, Miss Taylor and Mr Cook a verbal barrage for the power in-

Some 1400 citizens were eligible inate a fellow citizen to fill the funny part of the whole matter was Not one nomination was that those letting go with the blast received by the clerk, J. McGeach. are not customers of the local comie between the hours of 730 and mission. Since the interruptions 8.30 for which nominations were were mechanical failures the Com-

At the conclusion of the time Mr T Cook addressed the gather ing and condemned the group for not making a nomination and clearing up the matter He felt the councillors should have nominated someone but Mayor Mason pointed out that it was not the council's frequent as possible responsibility to make a nomination but the responsibility of the citizens of Acton who had not bothered to attend the meeting Mr Cook in concluding felt that the gathering should be allowed to appoint someone to fill the vac

Since no nominations had been ing. On Tuesday the biggest dereceived the clerk would ordinar- mand for Hydro power was made ily have to call another nomination in Acton. The demand was 2464 Engineer and definite instructions meeting Rather than go to this kilowatts, with the previous high expense. Clerk McGeschie pointed demand of 2170 kilowatts out that possibly the Department of Municipal Affairs would grant the council permission to carry on for the balance of the year without filling the vacancy

The majority of the group felt and Fairview Ave. There is apthis would be the best method since another nomination meeting would possibly end the same way

Fair Participation

The September meeting of the about changing over the present presented a hazard and visitors. The roll call was $2000. The Council has turned over | should be interfered with answered by a recipe for a sum the development of the well on the mer drink

The business of the day was Commission After going into the mostly plans for the Acton Fair matter it was decided that a brick also one for the building should be erected and it Georgetown Fair At Georgetown should be 20 feet by 15 feet with a the members plan an exhibit of clearance of 15 feet for the installahome made candy to be built tion of the pump. Other suggesaround the nursery rhyme "Hiptions were made for the building pedy Hop to the Barber's Shop to and it was decided that Mr Eric get a Piece of Candy." Arrange Hansen be requested to draw up ments were also made for the hot dinner to be served from their booth on Fair Day bling spoils more homes than poor HEPC operating division for a disposal plant cooking" was very ably presented work order to move two switch! Councillors Greer, Hargrave, Risby Mrs M MacAuley. Mrs. Earl poles from behind the Hydro work- | zell. Thompson. Reeve Tyler and Lambert contributed a humorous shop, over to the edge of the School Deputy-reeve McLeod were presreading on the good and bad nabits property. The cost of the moving ent at the special session. Mayor of a husband and also delicated a was estimated at $480. This work Mason presided. puch to the president called "The had been done last Sunday. Farmer's Wife," Mrs. Fred Anderson resid a poem on the visit to the Fair and the Queen's carpet as expressed by an Institute member from Guelph.

Miss Rena Braida, Mrs. Mahood Await Mystery Awards For Limerick Contest

While walking through one of the buildings at the Exhibition last week, Miss Rena Braida was very surprised to find her name dis-sending in her entry. could not tell her what her prize prizes blocking up the post office would be. Standing 19th out of 30 some day.

winners chosen from 340,000 entries, she suspects she might receive a Marshall mattress.

played prominently at the front of Another winner in the same con- | for several days. a booth as one of the winners of a test was Mrs. Mahood of Rockwood. contest. Miss Braids had entered who stood fourth. No word has Hubert Goodman, 20, of Nova Scot- The meeting was one of the larg- be completed by the end of the note sold "This is a wee bit of much-so much that we married a the Canada-wide limerick, contest been received about her prize e:- la. was hit with 4800 volts while est since last spring with several month. quite a few months ago and had ther so following the first surprise working on No. 7. highway just visitors from Guelph present. Pres Even the attendants at the booth ed again-when they find their

New Minister Met At Choir Practice to all the members

Council Postpone Public Utilities Commission held on Tuesday, September 12th, the staff Naming of Street of the Commission was subjected to

At the special session of council terruptions this past week. The on Monday evening the town solic Agnes St from Willow to Main Council also discussed the naming of the third line cast of the town, part of which is included in th were not justified The Commission town limits. No satisfactors name in allowing for the interruptions the next regular meeting

Mr. Wes Beatty was present at the definite location thing possible will be done to see special session to report that the present installation of the sexcrage line on Frederick St would Superintendent Wilson reported not drain his cellar floor in either of the two houses which face the street. The resident engineer was to prepare a solution for the problem and submit it for the approxal HEPC load had increased so

Resident Engineer Hansen wa instructed to investigate several other difficulties and complaints that were presented to council given that there were to be no dif faculties in making entrance to the Engineer Anderson submitted the park on Fall Fair day. Arrangeplans for the proposed waterworks ments were being made with the extensions on Mill Street East. Ac. : contractor and if any hold ups ton Boulevard. Peel St. Third were encountered on that street the Line, Queen Street, Crescent St.; tiench was to be back filled in time for the use of the road September 22 and 23

A by-law authorizing an agree ment with the Canadian Nitional Railway respecting the construct ion and maintenance of a sewer main under the railroad at Mill St was passed Mr Bert Hinton requested the Planned By Ladies An inquiry was received from the removal of a tree on Lake Ave. The Consolidated Engine and Pump Co., tree was ordered removed as it

Acton Women's Institute was held pump at the spring so that it would. Curbs built out on the road were on Thursday afternoon, September be suitable for use in the 90 foot discussed and Deputy-reeve. Me 7th at the home of Mrs W Denny, well on the Hufnagel property Level asked if in reconditioning the Brock Ave. The president, Mrs Quotations had been received for toads the ditches would interfere R. L. Davidson presided. There; changing over for a 76 foot well, with the curbs. No decision was was a good attendance of members one approximate cost is about given as to whether the curbing > Securing crushed stone for work on the roads was discussed. Postponements on the contract recently let were making it necessary to

Council decided to service the houses on No 7 highway west town from the rear. This method was more economical than any the other possibilities presented The clerk was instructed to write a letter to Jones and VanGil in structing them that they would be , held responsible for any fill that The motto of the month 'Grum- A letter was received from the was removed from the site of the

A letter was to be written to the Shock, 30 ft. Fall Injure Hydro Men

While working on the new pow er line last Salurday afternoon Kerwin McPhail. 23, of 'R. R. 3, ity of workers to maintain present was severely shocked by an electric wire and fell 30 feet to the ground He suffered a broken nose, bad abrasions to both elbows. burns on his fingers and burns and hemorrhage in his right eye as well as electric shock. He was equate pension for all. kept in Guelph General Hospital erficial injuries to his left elbow week following and gave the ar- oration has been averted by mutual and right cheek, he was discharged rangements for the meetings until negotiations between the company the next day.

Kenneth Allan, president of the evening. The two local men inter [res of floor space, ested in the work would not enter. Canadian representatives are the committee that a buildorer be expession will be printing bired by the hour to make the exto execution the cost of which would idemanding a large crew of operat-

> The Committee engaged R V Anderson to prepare the plans and specifications and necessary engincering details for the construction | morning to see the wenderful dis of the peak. Mr. Anderson was to play of printing equipment be paid three and a half per cent for this work based on the amount of moties spent

Engineer Hansen, hiptesenting Mr. Anderson, presented a skelidor was instructed to prepare the of the excavation, that could be necessary by law for the opening of made this fall. Before any progress could be made on this matter est was thought that the location should be more accurately fixed before proceeding and a meeting was called with council for Minwas arrived at and councillors were day exeming at 630 in the park to bring their recommendations to swhen Mr. Hansen, Council and the committee would meet and play

> It was thought that it might be made by then it would be possible.

A letter was dealt with demand ing the return of a contribution The Committee adjourned meet again on Monday evening

Travellers may send telegrams from passenger trains. All they have to do is deliver the message to the conductor, who will hand them in at telegraph stations en-

GOVERNOR OF DISTRICT 247 of Rotary International, Arthur Ferguson of Gravenhurst, addressed ! the Acton Rotary Club on September 5th.

Speaker Clarifies Unions for Rotary

Acton Rotarians heard of the aims and objects of Canada's un ions explained by Mr. Geo Ironsides of Toronto on Tuesday Mi Ironsides was for six years an official of the Canadian Congress of . Labor. He said unions were endeavoring to give the laboring man an opportunity to take his place with other citizens and maintain their voice in public affairs with other pressure groups.

In answer to a question of abilpension scales. Mr Ironsides peinted out the union's present drive for more production. He felt that as yet we did not realize our product-

The speaker was introduced by his brother, Rotarian Tony Ironsid- county. the end of October.

A report on the receipt of ten ling held this year in Chicago will pool was received at the meeting lion dollars worth of printing of the Committee on Wednesday e juipment displayed on three ac

> ing instructors to demonstrate it to the thourands of visitors

> Dave and Jun Dills will be the ing down to the exposition Froter

Improved Service

Sunday's five hour shut off al lowed 18 Bydro workmen to make the necessary connections in Actor for a doubling of the original 13 200 volts and consequently a better hydro service. Several new line had to be installed to carry the 26 400 volts which is the new volt age for Actors

This is one of the itims on the program for providing letter ser advisable not to excavate this year vice for local hydro users. The but to plan to have swimming increased voltage made possible by there next summer. Although the the new installations and the new total installation could not be sub-station which it is expected. Guelph as well as the Actor Boxs will be completed by the end of the to purify the water by hand a cl month will have a direct effect on will present an exenting bar and have a tank for swimming by the amount of time it takes your toaster and iron to heat up. It will also cut down in the variations of skill as well as the spills and bab, heat that are provided by these appliances and eliminate a neticeabadimming of lights that occurred freshment booths will be open And when the power demand was exceestingly high

Tuesday of this week the biggest entertainment a miniature restekilowatt load in the history of Accton was recorded. 2464 kilowatts joins forces with a ventriloquest to was the all time high while it sur-I passed the previous record of 2170 are always fun for freekles racing

Doubling the voltage of the local parade is the main event of the late system was not an entirely local afternoon job Besides the 18 men working. in Actor there were two gangs in fine displays and competitions Guelph and one in Rockwood as there will be the music of Acton well as men in several other; Band and the constant attraction centres that were affected by the of the midway with its rides shut-off -Auto transformers had to rames and the livestock and a rec be installed in Guelob while two ultural exhibits. Any energy 'eff' new switch structures and a nurs. There will be a dance at night to ber of new insulators over the top off a wonderful fair we cond transformer were installed in Ac-

A 100 per cent load on the three transformers now serving Actor would be 1500 kilowatts but with Mrs. Clara Lane, 82 the addition of a transformer equal in size to the present three, the capacity will be doubled to $000 kilowatts. This will allow an even distribution on the two sub-stations The several power interruptions on Monday were the result of damaged fuses. Each time different fuses were used until the service in 1868, and was married there in particulars regarding the suitability was working properly. Superintenworkmen are busy pouring the ce. Acton, on Tuesday, with Rev. Curment foundations for the heavy rey officiating. Acting as pall- | Department of Education officials equipment The two necessary tow- begrers were Mrs. Lane's nephews, for their opinion on the locations. ers are in place and the large ce- Messis John Sprowl, Griffin | ment cushion is being allowed its Sprowl, Arthur Griffin, Carman new washer and new electric stove

St and Hillerest is being fenced iff ence Denny, Smith Griffin and Jas. new models were brought out by with a high wire fence and work- Ritchie. men say that when they are fin- ! ished the surrounding ground will be covered with 3 inches of stone and the lot will be quite attract-

Forms are being prepared for the pouring of a 15 foot by 19 foot cefent cushion on which will be constructed the switches and other

Talking with the foreman on the construction, he praised the honesty of Acton's citizens because none of their equipment or material had been touched.

The rail strike provided a difficulty for this job too. The cement,

Is Committee's Aim Chicago Exposition High School Board Choose The Graphic Arts Exposition to be beld this year in Chicago will From Five Proposed Sites

Halton High School District Boardson Monday evening Transportation of pupils to the three schools and schetting a central location for one school to serve the three towns and two townships were the main items session that started in a drizzling rain at Spryside about 630 and ended after II pm. All the Board menders except one were present.

Town Fair-Minded

As Sept. 22 Nears

For regoing to have lots of qual-

its to be proud of again this year

Ped competitions have proven that the finest cattle in the district it many breeds are shown here aff trially as well as the heat poultry

And won't it be a mice change from the Ex to know the people that bump into you and that of

From the people who show their dock and get prizes for their

Acton Fair starts its run on Fra grandstand performance, in the atena. There will be two bonds the 11th Field Artillery Band from and Gir's Band Nickling Brys interesting Hall exhibits and re-

On Saturday there will be access

As a background for all this beside you at the how? And day night September 22 with houses and byestock

conskillig"

" In view of the fact that the estimated number of rural pupils had dropped from 150 to 108 attending the Milton school the Chairman of the Transportation Committee fest it was not meressars to deal with tenders for the advertised new coute as present losses could bandle The Exhibition in Toronto might all transportation with a short to able to to at town fairs us far coate of 20 miles to the Georgeas quantity is concerned but Action

> The Committee report recommembed that seven contracts be signed for transportation E Tylers route calls for 191 miles. George logle's route is for 80 miles, Mr. Poole's route is 70 miles and Georgetown Transportation calls for a 20 mile route. Two other contracts call for transportation of pupals from Acton and Georgetown Schools to attend the Household Fronomics and Shop Practice ourses at Milton and taxi routes will take pupuls to George town for special Commercial courses All contracts are passed on 35c per

Another resolution recommended that new contracts he made in 1951-52 with all operators and let

The Board members viewed postrampalm act and the saddle and sumping horses will display their sable land for the central school, east north and south of Speysine and the most suitable land in this difrict appeared to be at the corher of the third line and the road between Speynde and Georgetown

Following a thorough discussion of the central school, it appeared that Milton fayored a two school with a trained horse calf and docarea with one school at Milton and the other four municipalities favand only one school for the whole district. Five sites were suggested pic cating and babies! The stock One, near the third line corner and the Speyside-Georgetown road, the econd near Stewarttown and the old Golf Club ground, the third on the corner of the seventh line and the No. 7 highway known as Silver lreck, a fourth on R N Brown's property east of Acton and a fifth some place in Milton. These were voted on by the Board in the order of preference with top choice given five points, second choice four points, etc.

On the first ballot, the seventh line or Silver Creek location and the location in Milton, were lowest Passes Last Sunday the second ballot the first and second sites were tied and the fourth After an illness of two months, site was within a few points. The Mrs. Clara Celestia Lane passed Board decided that the Building away at her home, 98 Agnes St., Committee should view these three last Sunday. Mrs. Lane was born sites, ascertain if they could be on the Fifth Line of Erin Township purchased and the price and all for a central school The Commit-The funeral was held from the tee was asked to report to the At the new sub-station site, Victor B. Rumley Funeral Home, Board at the next meeting and the

The Board decided to secure a 14 to 21 days to harden before the Griffin and Harold Griffin. The for the Milton School which were 28 ton transformer is placed on it flower bearers were Messrs. Mac | under agreement from the West-The lot on the corner of Queer and Calvin Sprowl, Ralph and Clar- inghouse Co. to be exchanged as the Company Total cost, to the Board would be $60 for the new stove with no cost for washer ex-

> The Board also heard details of a new sander being considered for the Milton School but this will be dealt with at a regular meeting.

Present of White and Purple Heather From Scotland Brings Luck to Editor

We were intrigued by a parcel | tion. We'll be glad to share our ion capacities and workers could although their shipment was on a received during the week with ov- good fortune with any of our step up production to meet an ad- siding in Hamilton, could not be erseas stamps and it was among friends who have a Burr-r-r on the touched and it had to be trucked the first opened in that morning's tongue and a warm heart for the all the way from the south of the mail. We were delighted that the land of the heather. We have ho parcel contained a generous lot of claim to Scotch ancestry ourselves Again on Saturday hydro worker es and thanked by Johnny Goy It is expected the sub-station will heather direct from Scotland. A but we like the Scotch folks very Scotch heather for you. Trusting Macpherson, who received the you are all well. Thanks very much first heather from this box. true we are in for a generous por- | heather.

Surviving Mrs. Lane are her brothers, Mr. George Griffin of Erin and Mr. Smith Griffin of Erin

Township, a sister, Mrs. Amanda

Woodward of Hamilton and her daughter, Mrs. Charlie Allen, with whom she lived here in Acton.

the pair will eventually be surpris- Guelph General : Hospital for sup- open discussion meeting for the strike at the Wool Combing Corp- joyed it very much. Alex. Lees." share with us the remainder of It is said that a gift of heather this gift from Scotland. No children, brings good luck and if this is but just folks from the land of the