ROCKWOOD

Former Local Man Laid To Rest Here

Word was received in town of the passing on November 2 in Hamilton of a former resident of Rockwood, Elles Sewell, popularly known as Bob, in his 83rd year. The funeral took place Monday afternoon in Rockwood Cemetery. The late Mr. Sewell was a former section employee of the C.N.R. and later helped to build the highway between Guelph and Acton. He was a member of Rockwood United Church. Some 13 years ago he left Rockwood for Hamilton where he made his home with his daughter, (Minnie) Mrs. Jack Fulton, but lately removed to Hamilton General Hospital. His wife, the former Sarah Boles of Erasmus, predeceased him in 1932. He is survived by his daughter, two brothers, David of St. Catharines and Wallace of Guelph, two sisters, Mrs. Rose Allen of Acton, Mrs. Rose Elliott of Chicago, Ill. A son, Bertram, resides in Sunnyside, Mich.

Hallowe'en passed off with a big time in the Town Hall under the auspices of the Rockwood Community Club for young-folks and older ones according to groups. The youngsters had their turn first early in the evening. Some pranks were indulged in during the evening. Some were of a serious nature such as removing coping stones off the wall between Rival Bank and Frank Moore's. Also at Stewart S. Royce's, three cement slabs were loosened and set back on the edge of the wall. A number of street lights along Valley Road were put out of commission. A portion of hydro pole was dumped into Hartop's mill dam. A manure spreader was left beside Gordon McLean's butcher shop. Windows were given a good soaping or waxing.

Friday evening, under the auspices of the United Church choir, a fine concert was enjoyed when Messrs. Campbell, McArthur and Kingsley Ireland of Norfolk Street Church Guelph contributed several numbers which were enjoyed by those present. Rev. J. W. Oliver had charge of the program.

The young people of the United Church held a crokinole party in the Sunday School room Monday evening.

Miss Frances Harper of Hamilton and also a former teacher at the Continuation School, was in town the latter part of the week.

S.S. NO. 7 NASSAGAWEYA

Auction Articles At Hallowe'en Party

A very enjoyable evening took place in Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church on Hallowe'en night. Progressive crokinole was played with prizes going to Miss Donna McMillan for ladies high and Mr. Elmer Coxe for men's high and low prizes to Misses M. Dunkie and Shirley Dredge. A number of articles wrapped in Hallowe'en colors were auctioned off.

Print goods, candy and home baking were sold, which realized a nice sum of money for the Ladies' Aid Treasury.

The Farm Forum met on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. McLean, and listened to one of the most interesting broadcasts we have heard for some time with discussion on "Who Should Pay for Soil Conservation." Mrs. McLean served lunch that was enjoyed by the fifteen members present. Mr. Pringle moved a vote of thanks to the host and hostess for their kind hospitality. The Forum is to meet next week with Mr. and Mrs. O. Locker.

A number from the district attended Anniversary Services at Ebenezer Church last Sunday.

The snow storm over the week-end was a gentle reminder winter is around the corner.

LIMEHOUSE

W.A. Masquerade Euchre Held in Hall

Quite a successful Hallowe'en masquerade and euchre was held in the Hall on Friday evening sponsored by the Women's Association. A goodly number appeared in costume, among prize winners being Garry and Trudy Scott as boxers, Tommy Sutton as a witch, Billie Sanford as an Indian, John Brown as a tramp, Ruth Brown as a majorette.

Mrs. S. Wright as a scarecrow was unknown to all. William Mitchell came as a clown. Mrs. Smet-hurst and Miss Ivana as Patsy and Father O'Flanagan. Doris Harding as Uncle Sam, Mrs. E. Sanford as a bride, Mrs. F. T. C. Brown as a ghost and others. Mrs. Meldrum Stark, Mrs. Ron Latimer and Miss Shirley Wright judged the costumes.

Euchre winners were Miss Shirley Wright, Mr. S. Wright and Mr. Meldrum Stark. The W.A. were responsible for sandwiches, pie and coffee at the close of the evening.

Mr. Alex Wright was home from Toronto last week-end.

The A. W. Bentons visited the W. Greenlees at Campbellville on Sunday.

Dixie Jones played hostess to eleven children on Saturday to celebrate her fifth birthday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Fisher of Toronto and Mrs. Heiser of Ellensburg, Wash. were Sunday visitors with the C. A. Posters.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lane and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lane of Toronto were Sunday guests with Mrs. Lane and the H. Nortons.

The Karns visited relatives at London over the week-end.

Mr. Joe Scott underwent an operation in Toronto General Hospital on Tuesday and friends hope for his speedy recovery.

OBITUARY

Mrs. M. Creighton Dies In 85th Year

A native of Peel Township, Wellington County, and resident of Acton for the past five years, Mrs. Mary Creighton, widow of the late John W. Creighton, Sr., passed away on Saturday, October 28th at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Wood, 49 Willow St. Aged 84 years, Mrs. Creighton had been in failing health for several months.

A daughter of the late Hugh and Catherine Hughes, she married John W. Creighton in 1894. Her husband predeceased her in 1904 and there remain to reverse the memory of a beloved mother, one daughter, Ella (Mrs. Charles E. Wood), Acton, and four sons, Sherwood E. Stewart, A. J. Gardner, all of Toronto and John H. of Acton. One brother, John M. Hughes of Palmerston and two sisters, Sarah Jane (Mrs. William Wilson), Drayton and Bessie (Mrs. William Ellison), Listowel, also remain.

To all the bereaved sympathy of friends goes at this time. Mr. and Mrs. Creighton spent their early married life in Drayton and following the death of her husband she moved with her family to Toronto where she resided until coming to Acton in 1945.

Mrs. Creighton was a member of the United Church and the funeral held on Tuesday of last week had service in the United Church at Drayton conducted by Rev. A. F. Gardner. Interment was in Victoria Cemetery in Drayton. The pallbearers were her four sons, Sherwood E. Stewart, A. J. Gardner and John H. her son-in-law, Charles E. Wood and grandson, Donald H. Creighton. The flower bearers were Messrs. W. H. Ellison, I. Hayes, G. J. Hughes, H. A. Waters and Dick Wood.

Many friends gathered in tribute at the funeral services and many floral tributes bore testimony of esteem and sympathy. Among them were the following: The Family, John M. Hughes, Margaret Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellison and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Croft, Mr. and Mrs. S. McGarrity, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cook, Mr. S. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Heard, Mr. and Mrs. J. Westrop, Mr. and Mrs. H. James, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Salt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Youngblut, Mr. and Mrs. William Swatt and family, Miss F. Wilkin, Miss Alice McCallum, Neighbors, Mrs. and Miss Ruby, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. T. E. Waters, Hughes, Messrs. and Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green, Miss Margaret Hughes, Miss Olga Nuhn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strange, employees of Imperial Oil Lease, Beardmore & Co., Acton and Toronto office staff; Employees Association of Beardmore and Co., Directors, Beardmore and Co., Sales Record Dept., Imperial Oil Lease, Greater Toronto Revenue Branch, Postal Welfare, Employees Installation Dept., Northern Electric Co., Nestlé's Milk Food Products of Can., Acton Cemetery Board, Women's Association, United Church, Acton, Official Board of Kingston Road United Church, Acton Public School Board, Walker Lodge No. 321 A. F. and A. M.; Board of Directors, Acton Y.M.C.A.; Friends at Cockfield, Brown.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Rolston announce the engagement of their daughter, Muriel Elizabeth, to Edward Ernest Gamble, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Haynor Gamble of London. The marriage will take place on November 25 at 7:30 p.m. D.S.T. in Acton United Church.

Mrs. Geo. Lazenby Is Hostess to W.I.

The Acton Women's Institute met on Thursday afternoon, November 2nd at the home of Mrs. George Lazenby. The president, Mrs. R. L. Davidson conducted the meeting. The secretary, Mrs. F. Anderson read the monthly report and an invitation from the Scotch Block Institute to visit them at their November meeting, which was gratefully accepted.

An appeal was received from the Salvation Army and $10 was voted to this work. A quilt had been quilted the past month and plans were made to do another one soon. Mrs. Anderson offered her home for the quilting and Mrs. Lazenby offered her home for a card party.

The roll call was well responded to with "ways to be a companion to little children." The motto, "don't travel this year in last year's suit" was read by Mrs. W. Evans.

An interesting paper on the "Facts of growing old" was read in two parts by Mrs. E. Lambert and Mrs. W. Denny. Mrs. Davidson conducted a conundrum game which created plenty of fun.

The meeting closed with the singing of "The more we get together."

The committee of the month, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. J. F. Wilds provided refreshments and assisted the hostess.

Here's Why Acton MUST Build Additional Accommodation at the Public School NOW

ACTON IS GROWING

OUR BOARD OF PUBLIC SCHOOL TRUSTEES SURVEY COMPLETED OCT. 25th, 1950 SHOWS THAT BY SEPTEMBER, 1951, 13 CLASSROOMS WILL BE REQUIRED TO ACCOMMODATE 419 PUPILS.

BY SEPTEMBER 1952 14 CLASSROOMS WILL BE REQUIRED TO ACCOMMODATE 444 PUPILS

BY SEPTEMBER 1953 15 CLASSROOMS WILL BE REQUIRED TO ACCOMMODATE 483 PUPILS

BY SEPTEMBER 1954 17 CLASSROOMS WILL BE REQUIRED TO ACCOMMODATE 524 PUPILS

Building Additional Accommodation Will Solve the Problem

THERE IS NO SUITABLE SPACE TO RENT

It would be just pouring taxpayer's money down the drain to try to renovate and utilize the Town Hall or any other make-shift space

WE DON'T WANT OUR PROVINCIAL GRANTS CUT OFF

THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION WILL NOT GIVE US A GRANT OR SUPPORT US WITH MONEY FOR HALF-MEASURES. THEY KNOW WE NEED ADDITIONAL ACCOMMODATION. UNDER THE PRESENT PLAN THEY PAY 38% OF SUCH COSTS, PLUS $16 PER PUPIL OF AVERAGE ATTENDANCE, WHERE COMMUNITIES MEET THEIR REQUIREMENTS (THIS WOULD MEAN AN OVER-ALL GRANT OF APPROXIMATELY 50%).
