

LOCAL NEWS

News for this column may be placed in 174 or sent to The Free Press Office in Acton.

Christmas examinations begin this week of the high school.

Snow plows came out of hib operation for good last Friday.

Window displays are certainly taking on a festive appearance.

Inspectors Lakin and Davie have been visiting the high school this week.

A car with a big black bear strapped on the top went through town Monday afternoon.

This is a twelve page issue of the Free Press containing 84 columns of local news and advertising.

The provincial snow plow goes through town with its nose up in the air on No. 7 Highway in Acton.

The plans for the proposed addition to the public school are now on display to Lovell's window on Main St.

Elections on Monday. Voting will be for members of council, public utilities commissioner and the school department.

Getting up in the morning has been much less disagreeable this week with the return of Standard Time. But night seems to begin long before it ought to.

Despite the cars stuck in the fresh snowdrifts, the town was like a winter wonderland as the stark trees drew on long white gloves to keep out the cold wind.

Crushed stone surface for the various streets around town is now being put on the roadways. This will certainly make for improvement now and next spring.

One of Tyler's transport trucks had the misfortune to skid and turn over in the ditch near Cooksville on Monday. Fortunately no one was injured but the truck was damaged.

Last mailing date for cards to Europe was last Tuesday, November 28th. Deadline for parcels to the United States has been set at December 8 to allow time for customs inspection.

Several from Acton attended the funeral of Dr. Justin Joseph Bawendistel, Chatham, on Tuesday morning at the Church of Our Lady, Guelph. Father V. J. Morgan of Acton was in the sanctuary.

Items in this column are called "squibs" by the staff. If any reader has an interesting little squib of news we are always very glad to receive it either written out or just in the form of a suggestion.

S.S. NO. 7 NASSAGAWEYA Several Reported Ill In Community

There are quite a number of people sick in the community at present. Mrs. A. Allan is in the hospital and had an operation last Saturday. Mrs. Horace Rlythe is also in the hospital. Mr. N. Barlow is confined to his home with poison he got while threshing clover. Mrs. A. Pringle is convalescing at her home after a gallbladder operation. Their many friends wish they may soon be well and around again.

The Busy Bee Institute bazaar which was to have been held last Friday had to be postponed owing to the snow storm.

Several from this district attended the nomination at Brookville Township Hall on Monday. Two of our local men withdrew their names from the school board and two new men were elected by acclamation.

The Farm Forum met on Monday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Henderson. After the business and a report by Mr. A. Pringle of the Rally in Milton, the meeting formed into two groups for the discussion on "The country doctor." Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hetzel offered their home for the meeting next week. Mrs. Henderson served lunch at the close of the meeting.

SKIING IN BRITAIN

This winter 40 "dry" ski training courses for 800 potential skiers are to be held at 23 centres in Britain and Northern Ireland by Britain's Central Council of Physical Recreation and the Ski Club from January to April, 1951. "graduates" will fly to Norway for 11-day finishing courses under Norwegian instructors.

In 1948 vessels engaged in sea-going and inland international service entered Canadian ports at the rate of 800 ships per week.

At a meeting in Arthur on November 22, Mr. G. Fraser Smith of Arthur was elected the president of the North Wellington Progressive Conservative Association. He succeeds Mr. Fred Young, Hart House.

The freezing rain of the week and caused the hands of the post office clock to freeze stiff Sunday night. They showed out again on Monday morning after time had stood still at 20 after 12 for several hours.

Among the Kiwanis Club members at the Royal Hotel, Guelph, this week was Helen McPherson of Acton and Mrs. North of Eden Mills. Each won five free meals at the hotel.

The Baxter Lab team playing with the Georgetown Recreational Council ended up on the lower end of the score on November 20. Steve and Everett scored for Baxter but five goals slipped past goalie Robinson.

A lady in Acton was called last week in connection with a radio program sponsored by the Toronto Telegram. She was unable to answer the question correctly however, and the large jackpot was left without an owner again.

Mrs. H. Malinzie of Acton was guest speaker at a meeting held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Guelph, last Friday to mark the seventy-fifth anniversary of the affiliation of the Edna Smith Auxiliaries and the Women's Missionary Society.

Nominations were a simple matter in Erin Township, where all positions were filled by acclamation. Reeve Goldwin Hart was re-elected by acclamation as was deputy Reeve Wheeler, and all the members of council. For Erin village itself, Reeve Sam Letich was also returned by acclamation.

Several pedestrians were concerned last Monday afternoon to see bundles tumbling off the back of a trailer bearing an American license, which was travelling along Main and Mill Sts. The driver was luckily stopped and local residents at a loss to know what to do when the boxes were glad to see them all recovered.

There is one disadvantage to returning to Standard Time. During the last weeks when Acton and the towns to the west were at variance as far as time went, people from here have been able to start out leisurely and arrive in time for the first show or early in the evening for visits. But even that had its disadvantages the hour those who went out of town arrived back.

MURIEL ELIZABETH ROLSTON IS WED TO EDWARD GAMBLE IN LOVELY EVENING SERVICE

In an evening ceremony in Acton United Church on Saturday, November 25, Muriel Elizabeth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Rolston, Acton, became the bride of Edward Ernest Gamble, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Gamble of 619 William St., London. Standards of matril and white mums formed the setting as Rev. Eldridge A. Curvey officiated.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was gownned in white satin with lace panels and sleeves, fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt which fell to a cathedral train. Her finger tip veil of tulle illusion fell from a small satin halo and she carried red rose buds.

Shirley Rolston, as bridesmaid, was gownned in orchid net over taffeta and she carried yellow rose buds. Mr. William Waterhouse was groomsman and ushers were Ronald Rolston and Alan Gamble, only brothers of the bride and groom.

Miss Ethel Franklin was the organist and Mrs. Randall sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because." Receiving in the Sunday School room of the church, the bride's mother was gownned in teal crepe with gold beading and her corsage was of pink rose buds. The groom's mother assisted, wearing grass green crepe with gold beading and a corsage of yellow rose buds.

Following the reception, the happy couple left for Hamilton by motor from where they left Sunday for Wichita, Kansas, U.S.A., where they will reside. For travelling, the bride wore a blue suit with black top coat and winter white hat and black accessories.
