Hinggering Mistake

Another "Slip that passed in the Type" is noted in another local paper, to add to the boner in last week's column The error is in an advertisement Supported on either side by "Pork and Beans" and "Christmas Baking Supplies", the ad for pickled really pickled herring reads "Herrings in Tomato Souce " Drunk on tomato futce!

NEWS FROM ALL DIRECTIONS Namilianian en Breadway A Hamilton actress, born Vielet McNaughton but known as Jran Adair, has a new part on Broad way, playing opposite Rez Harrison The play's called "Bell, Boos and Candle" and the Canadian woman plays a minor kind of witch the mother of a full-fledged witch Miss Adair is not the least disturbed by the odd slant to her comedy part she has also played one of the sisters in "Arsenic and Old " Lace" and has a nice list of stage | 12

Sterm Flatures It seems hard to believe that the pictures of storm damage at Van Wagner's Beach shown in the Oak ville-Trafalgar Journal of last week are taken so close to home Harbor piers, sea wall and lakeshore properties at Brunte and Oak. ville were also damaged, but less severely Toppled cuttages and wave lashed beaches are a heartbreaking sight. One can believe it as the aftermath of a Japanese earthquake or Miami tornado, but flardly as a wuster storm on Lake Ontario' The Journal ap ly calls the destruction "mauling at the hands of Mother Nature
