IODE Ladies Have Hard Times Party

The regular monthly meeting of the Lakeside Chapter I.O.D.E. on Tuesday, April 10th in the Legion Hall took the form of a Hard Times party with the members attending in costume.

The Regent, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, presided over the business part of the meeting. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and adopted and correspondence was dealt with.

A tea and baking sale was planned for May and committees formed and the bazaar to be held in October was discussed.

Donations were made to the Peace Garden Fund and the Library Board.

The equipment in the kitchen was to be checked and needed supplies ordered.

Clothing was brought by the members for some needy children. Mrs. E. Marks was judged best for her Hard Times costume and received a prize. Games were enjoyed and a social time spent. Lunch was served by the committee in charge.

BALLINAFAD

Play "Lena Rivers" Is Splendid Success

The play "Lena Rivers", which was presented in the hall by the Evening Auxiliary, was a wonderful success. A splendid play, it gave plenty of laughs and also had a deeper side, keeping the audience well entertained to the end.

All the players deserved credit in the way they took their parts: Shirley Thompson, Lena; Mrs. T. Gibson, Mrs. Graham; Lydia Snow, Mrs. Livingston; Lillian Shortill, daughter Caroline Livingston; Mrs. Jamieson, daughter Anna Livingston; Mrs. Ernie McEnery, Grady Nichols; Mrs. Jesse McEnery, colored servant, Aunt Millie; Delmar French, Junior Livingston; Tom Gibson, Mr. Livingston; Fred Shortill, Mr. Graham; Roy Warner, Lena's suitor; Lloyd Shortill, Anna's suitor; Archie Laur, negro servant.

Mrs. Elwood Snow and Mrs. Ken Cotton deserve great credit in directing the play. Mrs. Stanley and Norman Sinclair sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Vannatter. Mrs. McLaughlin also provided lovely piano music between acts. The hall was filled to capacity. They have been asked to present the play in several places.

A number of the W.M.S. members attended the Presbyterial meeting held in Georgetown on Thursday, taking the morning devotion.

Communion service was held on Sunday. Mr. Smith of Georgetown took the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Skurlock are welcomed to the community. They have moved to Mr. Perryman's farm on the sixth line.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair and family are moving, having sold their farm near Ospringle and bought one at Oustic.

The hockey team held a eucharist and dance Friday night in the hall. Highest scores went to Mrs. Jank and Archie Laur. Consolation went to Mrs. McDill and Mervin Dods. Floyd Shortill then called Lloyd Marshall, manager and Arnold McEnery, coach, of the hockey team to the platform. Sam Snow read a very fitting address and they presented Lloyd with a signet ring and Arnold with a monogram tie pin. They were certainly taken by surprise but both thanked the boys for their thoughtfulness as they both appreciated it. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing to music by the Shortill family and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEnery. The boys proved themselves to be good hosts as they looked after the lunch without any help from the ladies.

The first Welland Canal, connecting Lakes Erie and Ontario, was opened in 1829.

CHOR MEMBER GIVEN CREAM, SUGAR SET AFTER PRACTICE MARCH 22ND

After their regular practice on Thursday, March 22, the members of Knox Church Choir enjoyed a social hour, during which Miss Betty Winfield was presented with a silver cream and sugar set by AB Robinson on behalf of the choir.

Miss Winfield, now Mrs. Clark Armstrong, thanked the choir in a few well-chosen words and expressed her intention of continuing her association with the choir after her marriage.
