ROCKWOOD
Minister Leaves On Trip To England

Services on Sunday were well maintained in churches. At St. John's Church in the morning, Ruby Ramsay, House of Toronto, and Mr. James Piddes were present for services. Holy Communion was also observed.

Mother's Day was also observed at the Presbyterian Church, during the service, Miss Beatrice Swanson assisted in the responsive readings. Phyllis Gray also presented prizes to members of her junior primary class. Rev. Fred Williamson gave the address on "Christian Discipleship and the Home".

United Church services were largely attended in the morning, it being Rev. John Oliver's last Sunday previous to leaving for a holiday in England this week. Rev. J. W. Oliver, Mrs. Oliver and Mr. Frank Moore leave Tuesday morning on the early train to catch the boat at Quebec.

In connection with the recent Hayloft Jamboree, a number of flash photos are on view in Charles Jefferson's store window, showing several of the artists taking part. In connection with last week's News Letter about the Jamboree, the name of Bernice Freeman was omitted, who contributed a vocal number, Harry Lauder's familiar song, "Roaming in the Gloaming", and also the Eden Mills Quartette.

The many friends of Mr. Albert Mally will be pleased to know that he is able to be around after his recent operation at hospital in Guelph.

Mrs. George Bolton is making gradual improvement since her return from Guelph General Hospital, following a heart attack. Her daughter, Mrs. Reg. Micka of Toronto is staying with her for the time being. Mr. Reg. Micka who is employed in Hydro Commission in the Port Arthur District was also here for a brief stay. He left Monday for Barrie to report for work there. Congratulations to James Dills, Acton, who was awarded a silver medal in connection with his studies at the Ryerson Institute of Technology, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzsimmons of Moorefield were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. George Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Eckel of Hamilton also spent Sunday with Mr. John R. Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Coates and family of Brantford spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Laverty, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelso.

Mr. and Mrs. James Milne and family motored to Ottawa during the week-end to visit their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Gosalk, in connection with the baptismal ceremony on Sunday of their little niece, but owing to the large number of infants for the ceremony, the service was cancelled before completion of baptismal.

In connection with the recent Tiny Tots contest in the Jamboree, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hepburn, Anne, was awarded the silver cup for first place.

Miss Elizabeth McPhedran of Orangeville-High School was home for the week-end.

Rev. Charles Gordon Harris of Manitowaning, Manitoulin Island, was in town recently. He was down to Caistorville, his last charge, to complete moving some of his property which he left there last October.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Richardson and son Ralph Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bilsan of Vineland were recent visitors at the home of Mr. John R. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henderson.

PATRICIA BAYLISS AND GORDON McCUTCHEON WED IN ST. ALBAN'S CHURCH

At a quiet service in St. Alban's Anglican Church on Saturday afternoon, May 12, Rev. W. G. Luxton united in marriage Patricia Mae Bayliss, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bayliss, Acton, and Gordon Frederick McCutcheon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. McCutcheon, Acton. Bouquets of pink and white snapdragon and fern decorated the church for the occasion. Mrs. F. Oakes provided the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her brother, George Bayliss, the bride was lovely in a gown of pink nylon sheer and lace, with a coronet of pink roses and lily of the valley. She carried a cascade of pink carnations and fern.

Her father of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Fryer, wore a nylon sheer gown, with gloves and a tulle cap to match. Her bouquet was also of pink carnations and fern.

Acting as best man was Harvey McCutcheon of London, Ont., a brother of the groom.

After the ceremony the guests gathered at the home of the bride's parents, Guelph St., Acton. Receiving them the bride's mother wore a suit of navy blue and off-white with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother chose a navy dress with matching accessories and pink roses.
