—It pays to be honest—but not enough to suit some people.

—The second instalment of town taxes is due Friday, June 18th.

—Some high school examinations are being written in the scout hall this week.

—School ended Friday for the students who passed without writing examinations.

—From June 5th to June 13th the Acton police wrote out 17 tickets for by-law violations.

—The Victor B. Rumley Funeral Home received delivery of a new funeral coach last week.

—Ron Hensley and John Agar have successfully passed their years at O.V.C. Guelph.

—Marilyn Marks of Acton won fifth place in the essay competition sponsored by the county council.

—While burning grass at the Ballinford ball diamond, Bill Souferyville had his hand and leg badly burned.

—Officers and members of Alma Lodge, Galt, took the degree work at the meeting of Walker Lodge on Monday evening.

—The weather has been lovely this week so we can't complain about that. But the mosquitoes make a splendid alternative.

—Following the community auction last Saturday in the arena, many articles of all shapes, sizes and styles switched homes.

—A baking sale was held in the Y Wednesday afternoon. The proceeds were to be used to help send two delegates to a Y centennial convention in Cleveland.

—Next Sunday is the day we're all advised to take special note of fathers.

—Profit on the Kitchener "Dream House" on which tickets were sold in Acton, totalled about $70,000. The house, won by a London, Ont. man, is now up for sale.

Mackenzie News

With manufacturers of refrigerators, stoves and such requiring bigger down payments for their goods, we here are able to say the down payment on coal and builders' supplies has never changed. This month will see the end of summer prices on coal which is now $24.75 per ton for nut and stove. While you are down ordering your next winter's supply of coal, don't forget to look at the three lovely models of Moffat stoves we have on display.

IN MEMORIAM
ALLAN—In loving memory of our dear father, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Allan, who passed away June 28, 1945 and June 15, 1942. Their memory is dear to-day. As in the hour they passed away Always remembered by the family.

ELLIOT—In loving memory of Roland Elliot, who passed away June 15, 1942. The years go by, but memories stay As dear and dear as yesterday. Sadly missed by his wife Margaret and his sister and family.

ELLIOT—In loving memory of Roland Elliot, who passed away June 15, 1942. You are not forgotten, father. Nor ever will you be. As long as life and memory last, We will remember thee. Sadly missed by his daughter, Margaret.

ENGLISH—In loving memory of a dear mother, Mrs. Jean Martin English, who passed away June 15, 1954. Her memory is as dear to-day As in the hour she passed away. Ever remembered by son Art, Jean and family.

FOLSTER—In loving memory of our dear mother who passed away June 10, 1941. Oh, we think of you, dear mother. And our hearts are filled with pain. Oh, this earth would be a heaven Could we hear your voice again. Ten years have swiftly passed away But still we don't forget. For in the hearts that loved you best Your memory lingers yet. Ever remembered by her family.

ELLIOTT—In loving memory of our father, Roland Elliott, who passed away June 15, 1942. Gone is the face we loved so dear, Silent is the voice we loved to hear. Too far away for sight or speech, But not too far for thought to reach. Sweet to remember him who once was here, And who though absent is just as dear. Always remembered—by his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Fountain and family.

CARDS OF THANKS
I would like to thank my neighbors and friends for the flowers, cards and fruit I received while in hospital. These kind acts will always be remembered.
Mrs. Wm. Holloway

I would like to express my appreciation for the cards, candy, fruit and flowers sent to me during my stay in hospital and since returning home. Also for the many enquiries. Thank you
Verna Webster

The family of the late Thos. Rumley desire to express their appreciation of the kindness shown during the illness of their father and the sympathy that found expression in so many ways at the time of his passing. The attention given by Dr. W. G. C. Kenney was indeed appreciated.
