

LOCAL NEWS

Items for this column may be phoned to 376 or sent to The Free Press Office in Acton.

—Police have a bicycle found in the school creek.

—Exams ended yesterday for the high school pupils.

—The Warlike Houses are all receiving a coat of paint.

—Strawberries are almost a staple food in homes this week.

—The Wellington County Federation of Agriculture held its picnic Monday.

—Carroll's Store is being repainted this week, both inside and out. Renovations are now complete.

—Local police report infractions of by-laws are continuing. In the present campaign over 25 tickets have been issued.

—Marc Lefebvre reported the theft of $22 from his pants pocket while he was sleeping in the bunk house. Police have not located the thief.

—A branch from a tree on Willow St. blew down before Wednesday's storm. Many trees in the country, too, were shorn by the wind.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

NEW PARISH HALL BESIDE ST. ALBAN'S CHURCH BEING BUILT BY VOLUNTEERS

Work is progressing on the new Parish Hall being erected between the Rectory and St. Alban's Church on Willow St. The cement block foundation is in place and workers have been busily preparing for the laying of the corner stone this Sunday.

ACTON SCOUTS SALUTE LIEUT.-GOVERNOR AT OAKVILLE PARADE SUNDAY

A group of scouts from the Acton troop paraded at the second annual Halton and District Scouts' Own service in Wallace Park, Oakville, on Sunday afternoon, June 17. Scout, Cub, Guide and Brownie units from Milton, Bronte, Burlington, Georgetown, Palmerston, Waterdown, Port Nelson, Thetford and Oakville attended.

The Oakville Cadets' Band and the Burlington Junior Band marched with the troops and the salute was taken by Hon. Ray Lawson, Lieut.-Gov. of Ontario. The speaker was James Wright, assistant district commissioner.

Accounts Passed By School Board

The regular school meeting of Township School Area No 1 was held in Osprey School on Wednesday, June 13th.

The following accounts were passed for payment: teachers' salaries for May, $1,467.00; janitors' salaries $132.00; Receiver, General income tax, $78.00; Clarence Johnson repairing pump at S.S. No 13, $5.00; Mrs. Vida Scott, account 460; Mrs. Ruth Papple, account $2.70; Ted Freeman, 2 cord cedar, $8.00; Delmer Peavoy, 15 cord wood, $105.00; Frank Cunningham, 2 cord cedar, $4.00; Bert Berry, salary $50.00; Erin Advocates printing $13.60.

Lakeside Chapter I.O.D.E. Has Picnic

The regular monthly meeting of the Lakeside Chapter I.O.D.E. took the form of a picnic held on Tuesday evening, June 12th, in the Legion Hall.

A short business period was held with the Regent, Mrs. J. H. Creighton, presiding.

Mrs. A. E. Gamble read a letter of thanks received from overseas for a parcel sent. An invitation was received to the 40th Anniversary Tea of the John Milton Chapter I.O.D.E. to be held in Milton. Members were asked to knit for overseas parcels. Plans for the bazaar in the fall were made.

The welfare committee was to send comforts to a sick child during the summer.

—Police have a bicycle found in the school creek.

—Exams ended yesterday for the high school pupils.

—The Warlike Houses are all receiving a coat of paint.

—Strawberries are almost a staple food in homes this week.

—The Wellington County Federation of Agriculture held its picnic Monday.

—Carroll's Store is being repainted this week, both inside and out. Renovations are now complete.

—Local police report infractions of by-laws are continuing. In the present campaign over 25 tickets have been issued.

—Marc Lefebvre reported the theft of $22 from his pants pocket while he was sleeping in the bunk house. Police have not located the thief.

—A branch from a tree on Willow St. blew down before Wednesday's storm. Many trees in the country, too, were shorn by the wind.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.

—Mrs. C. T. Davis of Rockwood won the T. Eaton special in the judging competition at the Halton-Peel Holstein and Jersey field day held at the O.A.C. recently.

—The power was off in Acton for a short while last night as a result of the severe electric storm which swept the district. Much damage was done at Hornby.

—Stephen Cox of R. R. 1, Acton won an electric clock at a draw made at a monster street fair in Milton last Thursday evening.

—A clam shovel has been removing the top 10 inches of soil on the Cemetery Hill in preparation for paving. Manholes are also being raised.

—One railroad worker was charged with having liquor in a place other than his residence and one was charged with drunkenness over the weekend.