Lady Joins List Of Unknown Men

The "Old Man of the Clock Tower" would remember this district lady—do you?

She is another in a series of old pictures being published from time to time in the paper for interest, and in certain cases for business. In the case of this photograph, the identity is strangely suspected, and so we are not searching her name for filing purposes.

But we might be wrong, and readers might be interested to test their memories.

Communion Table Formally Dedicated

Rev. G. L. Royal of Norval delivered two inspiring sermons at the Anniversary services at the local Presbyterian Church on Sunday. During the morning service, the dedication of a communion table was made. This was a gift from the Aitken family in loving memory of their parents, John Cameron Aitken and his wife, Nellie. A solo "The Lord's Prayer" by Mrs. Byron Bruce was a fitting climax to an impressive service.

At the evening service the ordinance of infant baptism was administered to Robert Byron Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bruce, and Carol Joseph, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris. Mr. George Willey sang a tenor solo. Following the sermon, communion was dispensed by Rev. Royal, assisted by the local elders James Struthers and D. B. McKinnon and Mr. McLaren from Erin Church and Rev. A. O. W. Foreman. The choir under the leadership of Mrs. G. Sumter sang appropriate anthems.

Baskets of goodies and roses added to the picturesque setting. Much favourable comment was heard in regard to the appearance of the church which has all been newly decorated and great credit is due the student pastor, Mr. Alan Vair and the congregation for their efforts. An interested visitor to the evening service was Mr. G. H. Pearen of Rockwood who helped build the church in 1888.

Miss Ruby McDaniel of Toronto was a week-end guest with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stubbington and family.

Mrs. Thomas Henderson, Guelph township, spent a couple of days with her mother, Mrs. Mary Cooke.

FRED ASTAIRE AND JANE POWELL co-star in MGM's brilliant musical, "Royal Wedding", in color by technicolor showing Monday and Tuesday at the Roxy, Acton. Come and see Fred Astaire do his dance on the ceiling!

Westerners Gather At Rognvaldsens'

Two major rainstorms didn't dampen the spirits of 60 former Westerners who gathered to talk over good old days and good old places at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rognvaldsen, No. 25 Highway, Acton, last Sunday afternoon. The Westerners came east brought picnic lunches which were enjoyed on the lawn despite the threat of rain.

Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Schaldemose of Chilliwack, B.C., who are visiting friends and relatives in the district; Dan McKay, formerly of Winnipeg and now of Owen Sound and J. Rognvaldsen, now of Acton.

The enjoyable afternoon proved that Western nostalgia—including Winnipegosis, from which the Rognvaldsens themselves suffer—is a disease not easily cured.
