—A summer Bible school under the leadership of Rev. R. H. Armstrong, M.A., B.D., is being held in Knox Church this week for boys and girls.

—A grand old lady celebrated her 84th birthday last week-end and had a splendid holiday. Still active and good for centuries more, she is Canada herself.

CAMPBELLVILLE

Costumed Speaker Addresses Guild

Mrs. Peter McLean of Massasauga entertained the ladies of St. John's Anglican Guild in her home when Mrs. Ross Carbert presided and all repeated the W.A. Prayer to open. After the first hymn, Mrs. Ross Carbert led in prayer, after which Mrs. Harvey Blacklock read the minutes of the last meeting and items of business.

Mrs. John Blacklock gave the Treasurer's report and new hymn and prayer books were received. Mrs. Carbert thanked all for the co-operation at the Anglican tea held in the Masonic Hall at Campbellville last week when Mrs. Parks, missionary from India, addressed the ladies in costume. A successful baking sale was held that afternoon also. Several ideas of money making were spoken of and one to be carried out is a newspaper drive. For anyone wishing to donate old newspapers, a truck will call.

Mrs. Melmer gave the June bulletin. Samples of church hangings were shown.

Mrs. Edward Davenport gave a paper written by Miss Gale Morley about her uncle, Dr. James F. Gale, who was the first missionary in Korea. He says "Send 1000 missionaries or you will be sending bombs."

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Carbert thanked Mrs. McLean, the hostess, for the delicious lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wallace and Gwen spent the week-end at Turkey Point.

Mr. and Mrs. William Currie moved to Norwood on Saturday.

A presentation was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Currie in No. 2 School before moving from this community Progressive church was enjoyed and dancing to Mr. and Mrs. John D. Currie and Mr. Roy Currie as floor manager.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Blacklock, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McPhail and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Freeman on behalf of the community presented them with a mantle radio. Mrs. W.A. presented Mrs. Currie with a cup and saucer and hymn and prayer book.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carbert spent the week-end at Parry Sound.

The Currie reunion was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Turner. A good crowd attended to enjoy the rags, ball game and dancing. Dr. Warr returned from Halifax —Nature is at its best now with the frequent showers.

—Mill Street drainage would be improved and splashproof avoided if dirt was removed from around the storm drains and the water allowed to flow into the catch basins.

—Lorne School was broken into last Thursday night, and the radio, some Red Cross funds, and some tools were stolen. Provincial Police Constable Bradley is investigating.

—The sky on Sunday night was aglow with the shimmering, awaying northern lights. It was as if a huge, full hoop skirt were dancing without its owner over the district.

—E. Freeman received the sad news from England on Saturday of the death of his brother, Thomas, in Bromley and his brother, Harry, in Wales, who died within a few hours of each other.

—The cord wood piled at the west end of the track in the Acton park does not add a pleasant rustic appearance. Visitors leave with a poor impression of untidiness and a clean-up job half finished.

—Membership in the newly formed Boardman Recreation Club is increasing rapidly. Boardman's recently assumed responsibility for what was formerly the Lawn Bowling and Tennis Club.

—The members of Knox Church choir, with their wives and husbands, held their annual picnic to Stanley Park, Erin, last Thursday evening and had an enjoyable time with sports, swimming, etc.

—Corp. R. Mason reports a number of fines levied for speeding on the town section of No. 25 highway. The town limits and the 30 mile speed limit are at the hill just south of the Wallace farm.

—The beautiful double rainbow that appeared with such self-assurance in the sky on Sunday and then again Wednesday apparently didn't have its traditional significance. Certainly the rain was not the least daunted by the gay foreteller of fair weather.

TORONTO GARDEN SETTING FOR WEDDING OF LYNN BALFOUR, K. GUILD

In the lovely garden at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Rupert Balfour, their daughter, Lynn Elizabeth was married to Kenneth Justine Guild, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert J. Guild, Rockwood, on June 23rd. Rev. G. C. Balfour and Dr. Harold Hendershot officiated. The wedding music was played on the harp by Mrs. Nora Rogers and the soloist was Dr. Harvey Doney.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of embroidered champagne shade lace with matching picture hat. Her bouquet was of white, moon, and maidenhair fern.

QUEEN TO OPEN PLANT

The Queen opened Loch Eloy hydro-electric plant in Dunbartonshire recently. The $40,000,000 scheme, begun in June 1946, involved constructing a dam 160 feet high, driving a tunnel 1 1/2 miles long through a mountain and building a power station on the shore of Loch Lomond.

TRK-MENDOUS

A sentimental lady on a tour of the Oregon State Forest Preserves stopped before a giant tree. "Oh, wonderful old," she exclaimed, "if you could only speak, what would you say to me?"

The senior forester, accompanying her, suggested, "It would probably say, 'Pardon me, lady, but I'm an oak.'"

Almost all the members of Canada's township, village and county councils serve without salary.
