A. of Lucknow, was the special speaker, preaching in the morning from Hebrews. In the evening his text was taken from Genesis. Mrs. C. G. BALLINAFAD Has Narrow Escape When Head Caught

Jimmy Kirkwood had a narrow escape from a serious accident last Thursday while unloading grain from a box car onto a truck. Waiting in the car for the truck to back in, he looked out to see why it wasn't coming and got his head caught between the truck and car but managed to call out in time to stop the truck. A very few more inches would have been too late but luckily the truck stopped in time. After X-rays, it was found no serious damage was done and he escaped with cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Wm. McEnery, who underwent an operation in Toronto hospital, is improving and friends trust will soon be able to return home.

The Evening Auxillary met on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Willard Sanderson.

Muriel Hills took the topic, which was very interesting, being the first from the new study book, "Home Missions Digest". Mrs. McEnery read a piece on Stewardship.

The 7th line from Ballinafad up to Hillsburgh is having a coat of tarvia which is a great improvement.
