—Today is the last day of summer. Autumn officially starts on September 21.

—First fall meeting of the boy scouts took the form of a wiener roast Monday evening.

—Children these days are almost as badly spoiled as if they had all been raised by their grandparents.

—Halton Women's Institutes were represented at the Guelph Area W.I. convention in Guelph last week.

—Exhibits are being canned, cut, combed, curled, baked and built, whatever the case may be, for the fall fair this week-end.

—The Girl Guides held their first meeting on Tuesday evening with Captain Mary Elliott and Lieutenant Dorothy Capper in charge.

—Raspberries, growing as unconcernedly as if it were still early summer, were picked this week by Mrs. Arthur Griffen of R.R. 2, Acton.

—Almost all the plywood siding was placed in the United Church Sunday School room this week. Finishing and varnishing will be done next week.

—Gordon R. Dryden of Rockwood and Toronto was re-elected secretary of the Ontario Young Labour Association at their convention at Lake Couchiching recently.

—A radio was stolen from the car of a Campbellville resident last Saturday evening in Guelph. It was reported to police. The car was evidently parked in the city parking lot in Priory Square.

—Rev. R. H. Armstrong of Acton attended the meeting of the Presbytery of Guelph in Duff's Church, Duallrich recently and reported on the General Assembly held in Ottawa last June.

—The local Women's Institute held a euchre party in the Scout Hall on Monday evening, Sept. 17. Prize winners were Mrs. Pearl Kennedy, Mrs. Leo Close, Mrs. Marjorie Hall and Mr. W. Evans.

—The front of Harold Wilce's store was repainted and redecorated this week. Both the Creamery and the Legion were also painted. Now there's no dust blowing from the street redecoration is popular.

—Former personal physician to the president of the Polish republic and director of public health services for Saskatchewan, Dr. B. T. Dale was last week appointed director of the Wellington County Health Unit.

—Among the top winners at Wellington County's Black and White Day at Fergus Fall Fair were the Holstein entries of Ernest H. Benham and sons of Rockwood. The junior butter weighing class was won by an entry of Harold P. Weir of Rockwood.

Ask Other Groups To Fall Meeting

The last meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was held at the home of Mrs. Long on Tuesday evening with a good attendance. The president, Miss M. Z. Bennett, presided.

The worship period was taken by Mrs. J. W. Thomson and her group, Mrs. F. Cleave, Mrs. A. T. Brown, Mrs. J. Lambert, Miss D. Simons and Miss M. Mainprize. The home mission book, "From Lakes to Northern Lights" was introduced by Miss Bennett. Mrs. F. Cleave gave the community friendship report and Mrs. Hannah the Baby Band report.

Scripture reading was from the Book of Romans. A silence was observed in the memory of the late Mrs. S. J. Reid, a member of many years.

The Autumn Thanksgiving in October will be held in the S. S. room with Mrs. W. H. Noble of Toronto as guest speaker. Invitations are being sent to other churches in Acton and Rockwood, Ballinafad and Churchill.

Several new books are to be procured for the book shelf. The meeting closed with prayer.

With Mrs. Long in charge, assisted by Mrs. F. Cleave, Mrs. A. Dills and Miss D. Simons, a social time was spent. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Long and Mrs. Hannah for her home and all who assisted at the meeting.

W.I. Makes Plans For Booth At Fair

The monthly meeting of the Acton Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. A. Wilderspin with the president, Mrs. R. L. Davidson presiding.

Mrs. George Lazenby was appointed to attend the Area Convention in Guelph at the O.A.C. A euchre party was arranged to be held in the scout hall, the date to be announced in the Coming Events of the local paper.

Arrangements for the booth at Acton Fair were made. It was planned to serve hot dinners as usual. Mrs. W. Denny and Mrs. F. Anderson were to get the necessary supplies.

The program was in keeping with Historical Research and was presented by the grandmothers. The roll call was answered by an incident of pioneer days. The motto was "a tribute to our beloved Queen Mary" and read by Mrs. Wilderspin. Several numbers were given as follows: "Grandma and Grandpa's elopement" by Mrs. McAuley and Grandpa's complaints, also one on Grandma's knitting stick by Mrs. W. Evans.

Mrs. R. L. Davidson conducted a contest on grandmothers which was won by Mrs. William Hamilton, a visitor from Eramosa Branch W.I.

It was deeply regretted that Mrs. George Lantz, a respected member, was ill and Mrs. Davidson was to remember her with a gift of flowers.

The Lord's Prayer concluded the program and a social time was enjoyed. The unique lunch of real pioneer flavour included, baked beans, Johnny cake, gingerbread and tea.

Study Indian, Hear Reports of Camp

The September meeting of the Daughters of Knox was held on Monday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. Allan J. Buchanan. The worship service, conducted by the president, Ruth Smith, began with the Flag Ceremony and Responses and was followed by the scriptures, Psalm 72, read by Diane Dawkins.

The study period, on the work the "Indian Trail" was conducted as a questionnaire by Mrs. Buchanan, assisted by Elizabeth Jany, Betty Sinclair and Dorothy Dawkins. Indian craftwork was displayed.

Very instructive and interesting reports of activities at Glen Mohr camp were given by Elizabeth Jany, Olive Mussolle and Inez McLellan. These aroused a keener interest to plan "Camp Fund" activities so that all the girls may be able to go to camp next summer.

Movies of the June campfire meeting were shown and created much fun, as the pleasant occasion was relived on the screen.

Presentations were made by Dorothy Dawkins and Betty Sinclair to two members, Helen Somerville and Joyce Greer, who have gone or in their chosen work and cannot attend the meetings regularly.

The girls also presented Mrs. R. H. Armstrong with a quilt, which represented their first completed project, in appreciation of her kindly help.

Mrs. Mainprize brought greetings from the Senior Auxiliary.

A short business meeting was carried on with the treasurer's report given by Marilyn Sieworth. Betty Sinclair reported a busy summer as card convener.

Plans were made for a Tea in November for the Camp Project Fund with weekly work meetings conducted by Mrs. Ritchie to prepare for this event.

The Mizpah Benediction brought an interesting and happy meeting to a close. A truly Canadian lunch was followed by a pleasant social hour.

LACK OF PARTS DELAYS COMPLETION OF ACTON DISPOSAL PLANT

Part of the digester and pump are not on hand yet for the sewerage disposal plant but construction work is complete. Minor plumbing installations are necessary before the plant can go into general use. Theron Jones reported.

If the parts are located it will only be a matter of a day or so before the work will be completed and all citizens can hook up to the system.
