FIRST POST WAR CHURCH PARADE OF LORNE SCOTS TO BE HELD ON SUNDAY

First postwar church parade of the Lorne Scots (Peel, Dufferin and Halton Regiment) will be held this coming Sunday, October 21, at the Georgetown Presbyterian Church.

Both the Regimental Pipe Band and Brass Band will parade, the members now serving in the unit and those who formerly served with the Regiment who may wish to rejoin their comrades on this occasion. The parade will form up at Georgetown Armouries at three o'clock Sunday afternoon and proceed to the Cenotaph where Lt.-Col. John R. Barber, Officer Commanding, will place a wreath during a short ceremony.

ROCKWOOD Bank Robbed Friday Morning

Considerable excitement was evident in the village last Friday morning at the Royal Bank after opening for the day, when two masked men entered the bank, ushered the manager, Mr. T. C. Winlow and staff into the vault, and made off with some $2000. As no one happened to notice the car number, the bank robbers got away. Neil Lambert, clerk, phoned for the police after getting out of the vault.

The first meeting of the United Church Men's Club for fall and winter season was held last Wednesday evening in the Sunday School room. Mr. R. M. Gordon, president, presided, and Rev. J. W. Oliver led in a brief sing-song. Mr. Dave D. Gray was guest speaker for the evening. At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Saturday evening, quite a number were present at the sale in the new Parish Hall of St. John's Church, the proceeds going towards funds for the new building.

Mr. Robt. Amos of Guelph was auctioneer for the occasion. Members of the Church conducted a booth where coffee and wieners were dispensed of.

Holy Communion was observed at St. John's Church Sunday morning. Sunday evening, a sacred concert under the auspices of the Women's Institute was held in the Town Hall, with Mr. Chas. A. Hefferman as chairman. The program included solo by Mrs. Will Black, with Mrs. Dave Armstrong as accompanist; address by Rev. J. W. Oliver in connection with being in Hamilton in the afternoon for the visit of Princess Elizabeth and Duke of Edinburgh; piano duet by Bruce and Wayne Hosking; reading by Mrs. Lorne Gullid. Piano selections by Reid Benham; selections by members of St. John's Church Choir; reading by Miss Helen Bayne; music by Mr. Martin Bauer on violin, and son Martin, Jr., on horn with Mrs. Bauer at piano; selections by quartette from Presbyterian Church; solo by Mrs. Wm. Black.

LIMEHOUSE District President At Limehouse W.I.

At the recent meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. W. Mitchell, the District President, Mrs. M. J. Brown of Hornby was guest speaker, taking as her subject "Citizenship". Her two headings were two requisites of a good citizen—true and devout devotion to God, and a great interest in "good to all mankind", bringing to the ladies much food for thought and for future activities.

The motto, taken by Mrs. Noble and prepared by Mrs. Benton, "A cheery smile worketh miracles" and current events by Mrs. Frank Brown, as well as all convenor reports, showed that the members are working on all current projects.

The Library Board reported the cupboards are nearly finished and ready for the books, also the report of the Fall Fairs committee showed 66 prizes taken at the local fairs. The report of the W.I. Convention as sent by Mrs. Smethurst was read by the secretary.

Mrs. Harry Brown, Citizenship and Education convener, was chairman for the program, after which a pleasant social time was spent with Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. F. J. Shortall is in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, following a double operation last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Scott and family motored to Washington during the week-end.

Mrs. S. Wright has been visiting in Toronto for the past week.

Recent visitors included:

- Mrs. Tremble and Miss Helen Swackhamer of Detroit and Wheatley with Miss Margaret Swackhamer.
- Mr. James Jamieson of Toronto with the McVey's.
- Mrs. Lynn Sr. of Sarnia with the John Glynn's.

With the Paul Spitzer's have been Mesdames Henry Riehnart, Ed Riehnart and Vera Riehnart, Kirby and Nagge and Mr. and Mrs. Tony May, Mr. Wilbert Riehnart and Miss Beatrice Riehnart, Misses Ida Halter, Elizabeth Halter and Tilda Halter, all former neighbors at Breslau; also Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sturm and Hildegarde, Mr. George and Miss Eleanor Spitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Kowk and children, all of Toronto.

Mr. Duncan McDermott of Grandview, Manitoba and many years ago, a store keeper at Limehouse, spent the week-end at Miss Ivens' home and renewed acquaintances in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ludlow of Alliston and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Lewis and family, of Georgetown with the Chas. Jones'.

Miss Pearl Scott of Georgetown visited the W. Mitchell's.

The W. M. S. fall thankoffering meeting was held at the home of Miss Ivens last week with Rev. A. Calder as guest speaker. He told of his experiences as a student missionary preacher in Peace River District in 1939. Mrs. Roughley read the 95th Psalm and Mrs. Mills led in prayer. Several read articles and poems and Rev. Calder sang "Great God of wonders". A social hour was spent at the close.

The W.A. met at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Harding on Tuesday evening with Mrs. H. Norton, vice-president, as chairman. Mrs. A. Norton read scripture and Mrs. Mills led in prayer. Arrangements were made for a Halloween euchre late this month.

Communion services were observed at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday last when new members joining by profession of faith included Muriel Appleyard, Bert Benton, Neil Benton and Ross Norton. Rev. A. Calder recited a prayer of dedication regarding the new linen for communion presented by the Women's Association of our church. Services will be cancelled on October 21 owing to Knox anniversary in Georgetown.
