CAMPBELLVILLE Girls' Group Meets At Leader's Home

The St. David's Girls' Group met at the home of the leader, Mrs. Moore on Tuesday evening with Audrey Cairns presiding.

After singing a hymn, the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Marilyn Moore read the scripture lesson. Jane Smith read a story "Three knocks in the night" from the Story Well.

Mrs. Moore gave the topic "What can I do about it?" and this was a personal question each might ask themselves. During the business session, it was decided to sell Christmas cards, also to give a donation for missions to the W.M.S.

A worth-while sale will be sent to a port worker in Montreal. Ann Parker and Eleanor Cairns provided the treat.

Marjorie Chester had charge of the recreation period. It was planned to show appreciation to Mrs. Warr who had been Assistant Leader and who is leaving here to go with Dr. Warr to Port Credit, by presenting her with a nice cup and saucer. Mrs. Warr was unable to be present but the girls will visit her home for the presentation on Thursday evening.

PILGRIMAGE STATUE BEING BROUGHT TO ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH

Very special devotions will be held in St. Joseph's Church, Acton, on Wednesday, October 31 at 8:00 o'clock when the Pilgrimage Statue of Our Lady of Fatima, which is a facsimile of Our Lady's apparition to the three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, in 1917, will be brought by Rev. Fr. Patrick J. Moore, S.F.M., by solemn procession from Guelph to St. Joseph's Church, Acton.

A cavalcade of parishioners in cars will meet the statue, of Our Blessed Lady between Acton and Guelph and conduct it to its allotted throne in the church here. During the procession the recitation of the holy rosary will take place over loudspeakers and Father Moore will give a special sermon on the history of the apparitions at devotions. The following day there will be a solemn procession of the statue to Holy Cross Church, Georgetown, where similar devotions will be held there in the evening.

Triple T Topics

It looks like the Triple "T" Club (teen-town and twenty club) is getting organized for another season of entertainment for Acton's young adults. This column will be run weekly in the Acton Free Press to relay club news and gossip of interest to readers. Two weeks ago the club held a week-end retreat at Blow's cottage near Temagami.

There was a great deal of fun as well as business carried out over the week-end. The discussions were held under a system which pulled no punches and gave sincere answers to our problems pertaining to our club and the Y. The answers to the questions, "What can the Y do for you? What is wrong with our club? What should we have for opening night?" and others will help the club council over obstacles throughout the club season. Here is a brief summary to help describe the fun over the week-end.

Friday night: Arrived late, lunch, girls slept in two bedrooms and boys on the kitchen floor, boys were tired and tried to sleep, girls sang and said quaint sayings, e.g. knock-knock - who's there? - tickle who? - tick in up, boys grew impatient, threw water on girls, the boys slept.

Saturday: Breakfast, went on hike, discussions, motor boat rides, dinner, some went to Temagami, exploring, discussions, took pictures, more boating, supper, dance, held wiener roast on island two miles away, went all the way by boat, came home to sleep, same episode with the girls as the night before, the boys gave one warning and everybody was quiet.

The boys cooked half the meals during this outing with J. Gunn and K. Adamson as chief cooks—a good job, fellows.

Sunday: Breakfast, church, C. Fryer gave interesting talk on Mounted Police, free time (mostly taking pictures), discussion, lunch, boating and free time, homeward bound. This outing can be said in three words, "It was fun", which were used frequently throughout the week-end.

Opening night at the Y is not only for Young Adults but also for their parents and anyone who wishes to see Acton Young Adults in action.

McPHAIL-VAN SICKLE WEDDING SOLEMNIZED IN PRETTY DOUBLE RING SERVICE

A pretty wedding was solemnized at a double ring ceremony in St. David's Presbyterian Church at Campbellville on Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m., October 20, when Della Louise Van Sickle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Sickle, was united in marriage to Robert Douglas McPhail, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McPhail, of Burlington. The Rev. J. S. Sutherland officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charmingly dressed in a fitted gown of white satin, fashioned on princess lines with a full skirt. Her illusion finger-tip veil was adorned with a crown-shaped headdress, embedded with pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of pom-pom mums and Joanna Hill roses. Attending her were Miss Gwen Aitchison of Elora as maid of honor, who was dressed in silvery turquoise brocade taffeta, matching headpiece and carrying a cascade bouquet of bronze mums. Miss Ruth Elliot of Burlington, gowned in yellow brocade taffeta with matching head-dress, carried a cascade bouquet of bronze mums.

Ring bearers for the double ring ceremony were Billie Dick of Alliston and Barrie Mahon of Campbellville, each wearing navy blue short pants, navy socks, white shirts and navy bow ties, each carrying a ring on a shirred satin pillow.

Ronald McPhail, Burlington, was best man and Omer Van Sickle, Campbellville and Peter McPhail of Burlington, were ushers. Mrs. Lloyd Crawford was at the organ and accompanied Murray McPhail, who sang "O Lord Most Holy" and "I'll Walk Beside You".

The church was prettily decorated with bronze and white mums and ferns and candelabra.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents for 75 guests. The bride's mother was attired in a maroon two-piece suit with black accessories and corsage of yellow roses while the groom's mother was dressed in dusty rose with navy accessories and corsage of pink roses.

For going away, the bride was dressed in a winter white wool dress with mink tails and brown accessories. They will reside in Campbellville. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Easley, only grandparents, were present.

Five-year-old Lorne Ella, while helping his father, Ken Ella on their farm near Hornby dug up a carrot that had grown through an eight inch link of chain. The four inch carrot was well collared with the link of chain just around the top part of the carrot.
