Halloween next Wednesday and a time for fun for young and old. But have fun that will not bring sorrow to some.

Perhaps, one difficulty immigrants to Canada will encounter is trying to purchase a five-cent article in a five-cent store.

Mrs. Gordon Johnson was invited to display her oil paintings at the I.O.D.E. Hobby Show at Milton Town Hall on October 18th. Acton Arts and Crafts also had an exhibit at the show.

Newman's Orchestra supplied the music for the dancing at the recent shower held for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harris in Dublin School. This was inadvertently omitted from the report published last week.

ROCKWOOD Many Rockwood Folk at Services

Owing to anniversary services at Stone Church on Sunday, no service was held in the United Church here. Rev. W. J. Taylor of Dorchester was anniversary minister for the occasion. Rev. W. J. Taylor is a former pastor of the two churches and many were pleased to have him present. Large congregations were present morning and evening.

A supper was held on Monday with a program following.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and well attended. Preparatory services were held Friday evening. Another individual was received into church membership.

Week-end visitors, Miss Minnie E. Nickell, Toronto; Miss Enid McNabb, Toronto; Charles Pollock, R.C.A.F., Camp Borden; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kirvan, Guelph.

The many friends of Miss Reldy will regret her removal to Hempler due to another attack of asthma.

Sunday evening service at Calvary Baptist Church, Guelph, was largely attended in connection with the annual missionary conference, when Rev. John Bell of China Inland Mission was present to address the congregation and also show a sound color film on the "Flower of Tibet" dealing with the life story of a Tibetan mother and child. During the service, the Berean Quartette of Waterloo contributed a few numbers which were much appreciated.

Miss Mary Jolliffe of Waterford was home for the week-end.

Miss Hurlburt, chief telephone operator, is back at her desk after two weeks' vacation.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Helman on the birth of a daughter.

Wiring Ready If Installations In

Enquiry was to be made with the Engineer regarding the tools needed for cleaning the sewers of stoppages. Screens were also to be obtained for the windows at the pumping station on Main Street as the glass in the windows has been broken by persons throwing stones at them. In cold weather this would be dangerous as the equipment would be subject to frost damage.

Supt. Lambert reported that no coal had been delivered by J. B. Mackenzie and Son yet. This was ordered last May.
