? POEM ?

Our office now is at 9 Main,
And we live across the street,
At either place the phone's the same
For us it is a treat.

In order that we may enjoy the comfort of our home,
We often lock the office door and
across the way we roam,
But how to get a cab you'll say?
Just ring the door-bell at 8A.

We often go to bed at one,
But our day is never really done,
For whether it be early or late,
You'll find a car at one, two eight.

We are always on hand to give you
service,
We never want to make you nervous,
So make an appointment day or night,
The price, you know, is always right.

A BIRD ACT

The theatrical producer was giving an audition to a man with a new act.

Producing a parrot from his pocket, the man placed it at a tiny piano, whereupon the parrot calmly proceeded to play part of one of the operas.

"Wonderful!" exclaimed the producer. "I'll give you a thousand dollars a week for that."

"But that's not all," said the man, producing from another pocket a canary, which, perched on the piano, sang an aria from the opera to the parrot's accompaniment.

Almost speechless by now, the producer managed to bring out an offer of "$2,000 a week for that."

"Er--er," said the man, nervously, "before you decide, I must tell you this act's a bit of a cheat. You see, the canary can't sing. The parrot's a ventriloquist."
