Remembrance Day this Sunday.

The snow blower found itself very busy early this year.

Plenty of cars were reported in the ditch during the week.

It was late Wednesday afternoon before a plow got through on Highway 25.

Full Assizes were recently concluded in Milton in the County Court House.

Some road signs are still not back in their proper places following Halloween.

Skating, hockey, skiing and tobogganing are all the sports that the snow ushers in for force.

Construction on outdoor projects will be considerably hampered with the early coming of snow.

Plan now to vote on November 23 and register your faith in democracy and interest in sound government.

Major predictions now are made on the possibility of the snow disappearing and the arrival of a warm season.

The new fire pumper is now housed adequately in the remodelled fire hall and only the new door remains to be put in place.

Snow shovels are pretty heavy this year. The lawn mower hasn't been at rest too long, either. That pleasant in-between season was rather short.

New highway signs have been erected at the entrance to Acton. They are larger than those formerly used and show Acton's population at 3640.

Rev. James Sutherland of Campbellville and Sodom Presbyterian Churches, occupied the pulpit of Knox Church here on Sunday evening.

Slow up in the snow when you drive. Night and the icy winter roads spell danger for the careless motorist and others who chance to meet him.

With the cost of living soaring sky-high, it is more difficult than ever to keep up with the Joneses. The only consolation is that the Joneses are having it pretty tough too.

This month more immigrants will arrive in this part of Ontario from Europe than in any month so far this year. It is expected by J. D. Blue, immigration officer, Guelph.

While pedestrians hardly dared look up for fear they slip this week, a glance from a window shows how beautiful the trees were during and after the storms with their coating of ice, and powdering of snow.

Don't forget to think before you go to the polls on election day. There are many issues of state and good government in Ontario important. Municipal elections follow shortly, beginning with nominations. Investigate promises.

Acton's pumping station at the corner of Main St. and Agnes St. near the Acton Auto Body was officially put into operation on Tuesday morning of this week. All sewerage that might be in the system will be pumped down to the disposal plant site.

It's "Oh deer" for hunters in Wellington County and in Essex Township of Halton this year, where deer hunting has been banned by amended regulations. In most cases the open season is for three days following and including December 3.

The pilgrimage statue of Our Lady of Fatima, which was at St. Joseph's Church last Wednesday evening and Thursday, passed through Acton Friday afternoon on the way to Ourlie from Georgetown. A motorcade again accompanied the van on which the statue was placed.

At the Halton Assizes held last week in Milton, a tour of inspection of county buildings showed that all were in "excellent condition". The Grand Jury, under Foreman Victor J. OBITUARY Mrs. Cunningham Dies In Denfield

A former life-long resident of Cooksville, Annie Elizabeth Williamson, widow of the late John Cunningham, passed away at the home of her daughter in Denfield on Saturday, November 3rd.

She was an active member of the Church of St. John the Baptist, Dixie, and the Women's Institute. She took a keen interest in community activities, especially those in the interest of young people. While living in Denfield for the past five years, she was associated with Holy Trinity Church, Lucan, and took an active part in the Guild and the Auxiliary.

Beloved by all who knew her for her human kindness, sense of humor and love of children, she will long be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to be associated with her.

She leaves to mourn her loss, two sons, Norman of Acton and Jackson of Victoria, and two daughters, Mrs. H. Tilbury (Gretta) of Denfield; Mrs. A. P. Ward (Vera) of Brampton and four grandchildren.

She rested at the Murdy Funeral Home, Lucan, until Sunday morning and then at the Skinner-Middlebrook Funeral Home in Port Credit until Monday, when service, conducted by the Rev. G. F. Banks, was held at three o'clock. Interment was made in the family plot in the church yard of St. John the Baptist Church, Dixie, Ontario.

The honorary pallbearers were Colonel T. L. Kennedy and William Demison.

Active pallbearers were C. E. Baker, Carson Crothers, James Kingsbury, Howard Pallott, J. A. Smith and Arthur Wilson. The beautiful and numerous floral tributes were an indication of the esteem in which she was held.
