It was pointed out that Miss Kilpatrick Local Group Gives had spent as many years in India as she had in Canada. She was Concert At Bethel Dean of Victoria College in Toronto for a short time and also a teacher at a Toronto school.

One of the highlights of all three rallies was a display of books shown by Mrs. E. B. Clements of Milton. She spoke briefly on the collection, which she called her "Canada tree of books".

The theme of the three rallies is "The World for Christ", and sessions began at 10 a.m. on the three days and continued until late in the afternoon. Each of the groups assisted with the program.
