NEWS FROM ALL DIRECTIONS

Georgetown: Ten Stitches
The Georgetown hockey team lost its first league game 7-3 to Bridgeport last week... after the game it was announced the Bridgeport team had to play Senior B while the Halton team has an Intermediate B tally. The four teams playing Int. B were Elmira, Hespeler, Walkerton and Georgetown.

Chappel will be out of operation until Christmas as far as hockey is concerned. Reason: appendicitis. Also sidelined for some time is Delly Beumont, who suffered an accident at work and lost the tip of one finger... he has taken over coaching duties.

In the first pre-season game with Milton, Rene Martin and Jack Kemphead each counted five stitches in injuries. A "ten-stitch game" they call it. Nick Ferri is still playing with the team in "filling-in" with Brampton Intermediates.

So that's the ice news from Georgetown.

Georgetown: Surf
It's not only the men who get on the ice in Georgetown. The Herald last week reported that some of the town's ladies were stiff—and don't take that the wrong way. They may have slipped a bit, but they had good cause. The group of 14 organized the first ladies' curling club in Georgetown playing on the artificial ice surface. So the ladies are curling without benefit of hairdressers, and are having a wonderful time.

Milton: Wanderlust
"In a Country Lane", the Milton Champion's "Ginger Farm", told last week of a modern motel in the northern highlands which proved full of interest when the writer coaxed the owner to tell a bit about himself. He was a Haltonite—Dick Oliver of Oakville. He saw a lot of the world before he settled in northern Ontario—and had a lot of medals.

He owned and operated a soap factory, installed swimming pools in golf clubs, operated a broker's office, and has insulated over 2,000 buildings in Chicago! He was a construction superintendent on the Alaska highway, was an engineer in the Aleutians, and chief engineer on a dredge in the South Pacific during the war. The owner and his wife travelled all over the States and Canada studying motel operating, and spend all their winters in Arizona.

Good thing it's not the season of the year for wanderlust!

Only thing difficult to understand is how he stayed still long enough to be tabbed a Haltonite.

Oakville: Me Chief
Everybody wants to be chief. The town of Oakville advertised for a chief of police and received no less than 51 applications. Which proves something—maybe just that advertising pays.

Oakville: Inspiration
Courageous quadruplegic Johnny Black has been mentioned in this column several times, and now the news The young man has not been able to use either arms or legs since a football accident in 1949. Football greats will honor him tomorrow night—Friday—at the Grey Cup dinner in Toronto.

Said Red Foster, "The Grey Cup is about the only all-Canadian sporting event there is left... and I think it's wonderful that a plucky lad like Johnny has been chosen for this recognition. It will, I know, be an inspiration for him as well as being of tangible assistance."

Johnny Black operates a magazine subscription service from his hospital room.

Young men... Here is Challenge and OPPORTUNITY

Training and experience in leadership are two of the most valuable assets you can possess, no matter what lifetime career you select. You may obtain both training and experience as a leader under a new plan whereby the Canadian Army is training young men with Junior Matriculation or Equivalent Educational Standard as Officers in the Active Force.

But there is a challenge in the standards you must meet—in the courses you take and pass before you can qualify for a commission.

And, there is opportunity in the privilege of leading Canada's soldiers at home and abroad.

If accepted you begin training at Camp Borden as an Officer Cadet to qualify as a Second Lieutenant in the Active Force. You will receive Second Lieutenant's pay while in training. When you are granted a commission you will then serve for periods of 3, 4 and 5 years as you choose under the Short Service Commission Plan. At the end of this service you may apply for a permanent commission.

To qualify you must be:—Single — Physically fit — Between 18 and 25 years of age and have a Junior Matriculation or Equivalent Educational Standard.
