Several skids and falls were reported as a result of icy streets and sidewalks.

Polltiness is like an air cushion—there may be nothing in it, but it eases the jolt.

We read that most of the traditional Christmas food items are in the best supply since before the war.

Frank Wood, Rockwood, missed the S turn on the line south-west of Acton on Tuesday night and rolled his Austin over on its side.

Baxter's hockey team was defeated 4-3 by Smith and Stone in the regular Monday game in Georgetown. The S. and S. team won the trophy last year.

Miss Grace Lantz, Acton, and Mrs. Stuart Lantz, Guelph, entertained jointly for Miss Marjorie Miller in Guelph recently. Several from Acton attended the shower.

A chimney fire at the home of Mrs. W. Gowdy, next to the Presbyterian Church, gave the new fire truck its first official run on Sunday night at about 7 p.m. Damage was not serious.

Several from Acton and district attended the Georgetown Arts and Crafts display and sale last Saturday in Georgetown. Miss Dorothy Stone, who instructs art classes at the Acton Y, did children's portraits during the afternoon.

Two cars were damaged to the extent of an estimated $700 early Thursday morning on the third line east of Acton, just south of the highway. A car driven by Ed Zions was stalled on the road when the car driven by Allan Elberly came along behind it. The front end of the '30 Dodge was badly damaged and the back trunk end of the '40 Pontiac.

NASSAGAWEYA S.S. No. 7 Ladies' Aid, WMS Elect '52 Officers

The W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church held their annual meeting last week with the Christmas program. Rev. J. E. Sutherland gave a Christmas message.

The officers were elected for both Societies for 1952 and installed by Mr. Sutherland. The reports given show that both Societies had a very successful year.

The farm forum group was entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Zawlaski. The correspondence and "Sign Post" were read and the questions for the head offices were answered.

It was decided to cancel the review night program, owing to so many Christmas concerts. There was a discussion on "Folk Schools for Farm People". There will not be any more meetings until after the Christmas holidays.

Two members were appointed to read a book or some interesting article and give a talk on it at the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. M. Zawlaski took charge of the social part of the meeting and 30 questions was played, followed by dainty refreshments that ended a very interesting meeting.

Sunday School and school concerts are the order of the day.
