

1952 PLYMOUTH BELVEDERE

The new 1952 Plymouth Belvedere smartly styled with rich colour, two-tone exterior and fashion-tone interior will make it the centre of attraction wherever you drive it. Side windows roll completely down to give you full enjoyment of summer breezes — or close lightly to provide the weather-tight snugness of a sedan.

Plymouth's "Safety-Flow Ride" is the greatest advancement in riding comfort since the introduction of shock absorbers. Revolutionary, new Oriflow shock absorbers on the 1952 Plymouth offer an entirely new riding and driving experience.

In addition to the beautiful, new Belvedere shown above, Plymouth offers the Suburban and Savoy, the Concord two-door, the Cambridge four-door and club coupe, the Cranbrook four-door, club coupe, and the convertible coupe.

FRESH DAILY—Green Beans, Salads, Spinach, CELERY, GRAPES, BANANAS

Hello Homemakers! When we add a touch of glamour to the left-over chicken it will do the honors for a company meal. Give you something to crow about, too, when it's Baked Chicken. The topping made with eggs and cheese is "top" Either chicken, or turkey meat will do—and such dishes are easy to prepare.

BAKED CHICKEN CASSEROLE:
1 can condensed mushroom soup
1/2 cup milk
1 cup cubed cooked chicken
2 cups cooked green beans
4 eggs separated
1/2 cup grated old cheese

Combine soup and milk in 1 1/2 quart casserole; add chicken and beans. Bake in oven of 375 degrees for 10 minutes. Meanwhile, beat egg yolks, add cheese. Fold in beaten egg whites and pile this mixture on the chicken. Continue baking for 30 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

SCALLOPED HAM AND POTATOES
8 sweet potatoes (sliced thin)
1 1/2 tsp. salt
2 1/2 cups scalded milk
2 tbsps. flour
1 small onion
3 tbsps. bacon fat
1 slice ham, 1 inch thick

Arrange layer of potatoes in bottom of 12 by 8 inch casserole; sprinkle with salt, pepper, flour and onion. Add remaining potatoes, dripping and scalded milk. Top with ham. Bake in oven of 350 degrees for 1 1/2 hours. Serves 6.

JIFFY CASSEROLE
1/2 cup raw rice
1 1/2 cups tomatoes
1 tin cubed meat
2 tbsps. chopped onion
2 tbsps. pimento
1/2 cup grated old cheese
1/2 cup bread crumbs

Cook rice until tender in a quart of boiling salted water to which a tablespoon of vinegar has been added. Rinse in cold water. Mix all ingredients except cheese and crumbs in a casserole and season with cayenne, salt and celery salt. Top with cheese and crumbs. Bake in oven of 350 degrees for half an hour. Serves 6.

IT TAKES MORE THAN FARMING TO MAKE A FARM SUCCESSFUL

As a farmer, you may have seen one man steadily improve his farm while a neighbor, though starting in much the same circumstances, can never afford it. In many cases, the difference lies more in financing than farming.

Many successful farmers follow one simple rule to finance improvements. They know that keeping too much cash around leads to easy spending. So, as soon as they receive payment for produce, they set part of it aside in a special savings account at the Bank of Montreal. Then they just "forget" they have this money until they need it to finance bigger and better crops, more livestock, or labor-saving equipment.

You, too, can boost your profit by saving regularly at the B of M. Gordon Oler, branch manager at Acton, invites you to drop in now and open your special account for farm-progress financing. While you are in, ask for a copy of our Farm Account Book. It will help you in your finances.

PAST YEAR HAD A FUNNY SIDE AS AMERICAN REVIEW SHOWS

The year 1951 had its bright moments.

The American Cemetery Association announced there is enough cemetery space in the United States to last 290 years. A survey at Hammond, Ind., showed 126,322 people in cemeteries, above-ground population 37,594.

A medical survey in the United States concluded that married people have fewer headaches than single people.

As always, humankind in 1951 displayed its shining talents for being helpful, kind, courteous and romantic.

In Quincy, Mass., 40 runners in a 10-mile race jogged up to an intersection where two small boys kindly told them to go right, not left. The runners wound up on a dead-end street and the race was cancelled.

C. E. Gold of Hertford, England, voted for his opponent and lost the election as alderman—by one vote.

In San Pedro, Calif., a plumber connected the gas pipe to the water outlet and the water pipe to the gas outlet.

"The State Senator from Maine" who addressed the Ohio legislature turned out to be an escaped patient from a mental hospital.

An investigation of red tape disclosed that a single Veterans' Administration contract with a GI training school had to be signed or initialed 1,500 times, 900 times by the same person.

Of course, some people were moved to drastic action by the little irritating things of life. A "cop in South Bend, Ind.," arrested a woman for driving without

Teen-Age Singer Debuts in Comedy

One of the many musical romances in Paramount's "Here Comes the Groom," the big new Bing Crosby romantic comedy coming to the Roxy Theatre is provided by Anna Maria Alberghetti, sensational fifteen-year-old Italian soprano.

Making her American film debut in this rollicking, good humored account of a reporter staging a hilarious campaign to win a mother for two orphans he has adopted, Miss Alberghetti plays a homeless child. The sequence in which she sings an arie-trova "Rigolotto" to Bing's piano accompaniment is one of the most beautiful and affecting scenes that has ever been filmed.

For this dark-tressed, intense-eyed Italian miss, Bing's background music, though adequate, represented a sharp departure from the type of accompaniment to which she had been accustomed since her European debut in 1948. She has appeared with the world's finest symphonic orchestras, including the Philadelphia Symphony and the New York Philharmonic, and earned rave reviews from the toughest European and American critics.

Incidentally, her performance on the set of "Here Comes the Groom" was enthusiastically applauded by normally impulsive technicians, sure proof that Miss Alberghetti's appeal isn't limited to long hairs.

TAKE A TIP
Juices left over from canned fruit make delicious sherbet toppings for desserts, and they are easy to prepare. Freeze them to a "mush" in the ice cube tray of the electric refrigerator, then remove and whip with mixer, re-freeze and keep at "normal" settings until serving time.

Try powdered sugar instead of flour when rolling out cookies dough. The powdered sugar will not form a white film on the dough. Sprinkle the cookie cutter too and prevent sticking.

Prepare sandwiches of meat, cheese, peanut butter or cooked fowl, and wrap in aluminum foil, then place in freezing unit of the refrigerator. These will freshen in about 1/2 hour or can be toasted when frozen on the broiling pan. A wonderful idea for company.

Cranberries can be mixed into muffins, used with apple quarters for an upside-down cake or mixed with chopped blanched almonds for a spread between split tea biscuits.

Here comes a laugh. Boom! It's "Here Comes the Groom."
