SAVE WHAT YOU CAN AFFORD TO SAVE REGULARLY

The best way to save is to plan for it. Decide how much you can afford aside regularly—every pay day, for example—and then stick to your plan.

Whatever your reason for saving, this is the sure method to build up a worthwhile sum in your account. Save regularly and you'll have cash when you need it for your vacation or for Christmas expenses, for the down-payment on your own home, the sudden emergency or the opportunity that's too good to miss.

Why not work out your savings plan today, to fit into the family budget? Or, if you like, come and have a chat with Orme Hunt, accountant at the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, about it. Canadians keep over a billion dollars in savings, in the B of M—more than in any other Open your account at "My Bank" and your savings will grow well in such good company.
