Miss K. Kennedy Dies In Brampton

Miss Katherine (Kate) Kennedy, a native of Esqueving Township and daughter of the late Alex. and Jane Kennedy, passed away on Thursday, February 7th at Peel Memorial Hospital. Miss Kennedy was a school teacher and had taught in Acton Public School several years ago. She had been residing in Brampton at 28 Voddan St. prior to her death. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lundy of 6 David St., Brampton.

The funeral was held on February 9th with Rev. Wm. Weir officiating. Interment was in Limehouse Cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Fyfe Somerville, Oliver Moffat, James Mann, Ninian Lindsay, Richard Brown and Jos. Anthony.

Yields of varieties of cereals, field peas, beans, soybeans, corn and flax eligible for registered and certified grades have been reduced in western Canada by unfavorable harvesting weather. Much of the production from western Canada may not be available for spring seeding in 1952.

Mackenzie News

This past week the lumber trend has seemed to be towards fixing up the kitchen for the wife or mother as the case may be.

We are sure that the bright colors in paints and Duro-Lam wall boards that we have to offer will be appealing to anyone.

Build them yourself. It is fun and you can be proud of your hand work.

We also have a complete line of cupboard hardware so do drop down and let us help you.

Births, Marriages Deaths, Etc.

BORN

ELLIOTT — Mr. and Mrs. P. Elliott, 203 Mason Blvd., are very happy to announce the birth of their daughter, Ann, at the Nursing Home, Acton, on Saturday, February 16th. Terry, Garry, Yvonne and Norman wait at home to welcome their new sister. All well.

IN MEMORIAM

COCKRILL — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Arthur Cockrill, who passed away February 21, 1948. The memory is not just to-day but every day; In silence we remember. Wife, family and grandchildren.

HARR — In loving memory of our dear mother, Emma Harr, who passed away February 19, 1948. Oh, we think of you, dear mother, and our hearts are filled with pain. Oh, this earth would be a heaven, could we hear your voice again. Four years have swiftly passed away but still we don't forget. For in the hearts that loved you best, Your memory lingers yet. Lovingly remembered by Mabel and Ethel.

CARDS OF THANKS

McMcCullough wishes to thank sincerely his relatives, friends and neighbors for the gifts, cards and kind enquiries received during his illness in Guelph General Hospital.

I wish to thank friends, neighbors and relatives, for the cards, gifts, and other kindnesses, shown me during my recent illness in the hospital, and since I have come home. This thoughtfulness was deeply appreciated.

? POEM ?

The weather soon will be more mild. The ice and snow will disappear. Although March winds are always wild, Roy's Taxi, anytime, may appear.

To bring your friends who want a visit, Or persons making business calls, Look out the door and ask "Who is it?" Or guess again, we bring them all.

Yes, those who call to one, two, eight, To take them to and fro, Know that they're seldom ever late, A car is dispatched by radio.
