Hydro was installed last week at Woodside School, R. R. 2, Acton.

Many have already switched from winter overalls to rubber boots.

The Acton badminton club lost to Port Credit 3-1 in the Acton Y last Thursday evening.

Several from Acton attended the Sportsmen's Show in the Coliseum Toronto, last week-end.

S. A. B. McLeary, recently appointed deputy-sheriff of Halton County, has resigned the position.

George Ware and Ed McHugh report the first robin just this morning (Thursday). Spring must be just around the corner.

No matter if there are blistering equinoctial gales tomorrow, the equinox means the first day of spring, no matter how bad the weather.

Quite temperamental, this March. With such sudden violent tempers of wind and then warm benevolent spells, she should maybe see a psychiatrist or something.

Mrs. McCutcheon Ladies' Aid Hostess

A special invitation was accepted by the Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church to have their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. S. McCutcheon, Erin, on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting opened by singing a hymn. The devotional and study book on "Close of State in South America" was taken by Mrs. A. Sinclair.

Committees were appointed for several forms of entertainment in the future.

Readings were given by Mrs. Winter and Mrs. E. Fisher. A concert was given by Mrs. George Jackson.

After singing the hymn, "Simply trusting every day", the meeting closed after which a delicious luncheon of salads, cake and ice cream was served. Noticeable was a lovely birthday cake given to Mrs. McCutcheon in honor of her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Winter and family of Oustic visited on Sunday with Mrs. W. J. Jackson.

Mrs. Leighton, Miss Brown and Mr. J. Hunter, all of Toronto, visited on Sunday with Mr. Robert Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McKenzie attended the Sportsmen's Show in Toronto on Saturday evening.

Little Miss Gall Robertson of Guelph spent the week-end with her grandfather, Mr. George D. Robertson and Joyce.

Mrs. Howard Switzer has been engaged as assistant teacher for a few days each week to assist Mrs. White, who has an enrolment of 40 pupils.

Mrs. Ward Bruce entertained the Mission Band on Saturday afternoon when 22 children gathered for the meeting. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Gordon Attkin and Mrs. A. Bulloch.

LONG DISCUSSION AT Y.P.S. MEETING PROVOKED BY QUESTION BOX

Knox Y. P. S. met in the Sunday School on Tuesday night. Inez McLellan, worship convener, was in charge of the meeting and led in the opening devotions.

The offering was received and dedicated. The first part of the topic on "Prophecy" was given by Arnie Thorarinnson and the second part on "Psalm" by June Watkins and Inez McLellan. Rev. R. H. Armstrong answered questions from a "Question Box".

The one question was an apparent contradiction on forgiveness of sin. The other one was "whether salvation is of God entirely, or does man have a part in it also?" Again the discussion lasted a long time and was also inconclusive.

Bill Bell opened the business meeting. Minutes were read and 12 answering roll call. After several announcements and a closing hymn, Rev. Armstrong closed with prayer.

MORE JOBS

The changing pattern of Canada's industrial structure is beginning to show up more clearly in employment trends, reports The Financial Post. Despite layoffs and pockets of unemployment, the labour force and number of persons with jobs has never been higher. One estimate: 30 per cent more new jobs created than last year. Total increase in jobs: about 130,000. Unemployment is still going down too.

Milder weather brings auction sales throughout the district.

We acknowledge receipt of a letter from "Old Subscriber" this week concerning an Acton council matter but regret it cannot be published in view of the fact of our strict rule forbidding publication of any unsigned letters.

A gold cross was given last Sunday to Rummyede United Church, Toronto, by M. C. Overholt and Merle in memory of Mrs. Overholt, who died last spring. Members of the family from Acton attended the service.

Engineers from Chicago were here this week starting inspection of installations at the sewage disposal plant. No information could be secured on when the plant might be in operation. The tests on equipment started yesterday.

Greenock and Cedarvale Public School pupils toured Platonies, the Acton Free Press and Beardmore and Co. plants Wednesday. The 30 pupils, with their teachers, Miss Joanne Julian and Ralph McKown, drove to Acton in five cars.

Hold Annual Hobby Show At Meeting

The Busy Bee Institute met last week in the home of Mrs. Stanley Robinson. The president opened the meeting with the "Institute Ode". The roll call was answered by a house cleaning hint.

Delegates were appointed to attend the Area Convention at the O.A.C. in May. Plans were made for a social evening in the school with the Nassagaweya Institute as guests. The annual hobby show was held at the meeting with a good display of quilts, girls' dresses and fancy household linens. After repeating the Lord's Prayer a social hour closed the meeting.

Another esteemed resident of the district passed away last week after a lingering illness, in the person of Mrs. N. Dredge. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family.

Mr. J. J. Henderson was able to leave the hospital the end of last week, and is convalescing at the home of his son, J. L. Henderson, Long Branch.

No. 7 Farm Forum were guests of N. 7 group on Monday evening in No. 8 school. The broadest, "Are Hunger and Poverty the Real Causes of War", was listened to and the questions discussed by three groups.

Progressive euchre was played by six tables with prizes going to Mrs. P. McLean, Mr. Norman Miller, Mrs. McNlyre and Mr. A. Pringle. After the serving of refreshments, Mr. S. Robinson on behalf of No. 7 group expressed thanks for the pleasant evening.
