ACTON PEOPLE AND ACTON PLACES THROUGH MANY YEARS

The lot now occupied by Elliott Bros. General Store, Bralda's Shoe Store and Hinton's store, was originally bought from the Adams' estate by Mr. Brinton. He built a store on the corner and a warehouse where the Hinton store is.

In those days the stores kept both dry goods and wet goods. Back in the sixties, Charles and James Symon bought the Benzie property and business. In those days sugar came in great hogheads holding half a ton or more. Often when the children were passing the warehouse from school a good sized lump of that muscavado went to a blue eyed maiden, the gift of the store's errand boy.

Prescriptionette

Maybe you've had trouble when busily preparing dinner with vegetables boiling over. One suggested way to prevent this messy situation is to rub a small amount of butter around the rim of the pot. And while getting dinner nothing can be handier than a box of Kleenex in the kitchen to take the place of that handkerchief that is hard to find at just the right moment. Kleenex in the man's size is just 36c or two for 71c. The handy pocket pack is ideal for the purse or pocket at just 5c each, or 12 for 59c. Chubby size and the hanky size is 22c or two for 43c. With spring in the air and colds still going around why not get a bottle of Idaphos. A good general "pick-me-up" medication it's the ideal Spring Tonic.

Blackout As Fuses Blow In Village

Sometime Saturday afternoon, three fuses blew out at the power station in the village, leaving the citizens without light and power for a short time.

Last Wednesday afternoon, under the auspices of the Women's Institute, a demonstration in connection with sewing machines was held in the Town Hall. Refreshments were served to those who were present for the occasion.

Friday evening, the young people of the United Church held a crokinole social in the Sunday School room, which was well attended.

Owing to inclement weather Sunday, church services were rather poorly attended because of the bad roads for those out of town.

In the absence of Archdeacon Mackintosh, Mr. George Elliott conducted service at St. John's Church, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Gordon and daughter have returned home from a holiday in Florida.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day on the occasion of their 43rd wedding anniversary.

Three Films Shown To Forum Members

The Busy Bee Institute held a social on Friday evening in the school. Progressive euchre, crokinole and film were played, with prizes going to Mrs. Wm. Wallace, Mrs. Ed Davenport, Harlan Wilson and William Wallace for euchre; R. Lindsay and Bob Thompson for crokinole; Mrs. A. Allan and N. Barlow for film. After the serving of refreshments and good-byes said, another social was brought to a close.

The final meeting of the winter series of Farm Forums was held in the school on Monday evening. Mr. Spiers of Campbellville showed three films and there was a short program and some contests. The contests were won by Mrs. P. McLeat in pencil golf; the pie eating contest was a tie between Bob Cox and Don McLean. Mrs. Zawilek held the lucky cup. Sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. The members are looking forward to the opening meeting next fall.

Quitting bees have been held in several homes of the district the past few weeks.
